Odds Against Me:

Odds Against Me Mina Scheller-Wildfeuer, 2009-06-05 EXCERPTS FROM THE BOOK ODDS AGAINST ME By MINA SCHELLER WILDFEUER PART 1 TRANQUILITY CHILDHOOD Bruckenthal evokes my fondest memories With nostalgia I recall walks through immense wheat fields a huge yellow ocean with slight ripples of waves gently swaying in the summer breeze a glorious intense orgy of colorful wildflowers interspersed throughout it the vivid blues of cornflowers brilliant reds of poppies immaculate whites of daisies I was surrounded by nature s best The sweet fragrance the breathtaking beauty of it filled me with overwhelming joy Carried upon the current of happiness I dang out loud On lazy summer days when the atmosphere became heavy with the heat I lay down on the cool dark rich earth looking up into the translucent blue sky through hot simmering air Made drowsy by the monotonous buzz of bees I let myself overflow with a child s dream It was the loveliest corner in the world PART 2 WAR REFUGEES Hour after hour I a twelve year old shuffled behind the wagon battling harsh howling winds gust of snow and sleep Sometimes when slowing down I could feel the steamy warm breath and hear the occasional snorting of following horses near my ears What if I should fall down Would I be trampled to death rolled over by the churning wheels The trek came to a hold I was fatigued beyond endurance almost hallucinating An overturned wagon on the side of the road the casualty of mortar fire beckoned me Next to its dead horse still in harness was leaning against an embankment with its head grotesquely twisted and its legs stiffly sticking upward Large lumps faintly bearing human shape were half buried in a snow tomb I climbed onto the deserted wagon and curled up between baggage It snowed heavier Big beautiful snowflakes floated silently down Soon everything would be covered softly just one white serene wonderland I would be asleep finally blissfully asleep maybe forever My eyes closed I felt myself drifting off peacefully PART 3 POSTWAR BAD OLDESLOE GERMANY Hunger was our steady companion The prayerful sentence Give us this day our daily bread so carelessly uttered by many took on an urgent meaning To subsidize the meager rations being near the starvation point Mother and I went foraging for food Drove of hungry people from the big City Hamburg joined us in that venture They came by trains that were filled beyond capacity Humans were hanging on the outside like overripe grapes The trains hardly came to a stop when everyone jumped down and descended on the already harvested fields in hope of finding leftovers We all walked and picked through the scratchy stubble of reaped wheat fields It was a painful experience Legs and hands were cut and bleeding The reward came when found grains were carefully separated from salvaged husks and Father pounded the kernels into coarse flour The bread Mother made from it was delicious but hardly enough for five Putting it into a locked box she doled it out a few slices at a time PART 4 AMERICA AMERICA THE GENERAL LANGFITT I sank down in wet planks in a vacant corner licking the salty air Some of my fellow travelers reeking if garlic were strolling on deck Garlic was supposed to be a remedy not only against vampires but also for seasickness Others their faces showing greenish hues joined me We didn t exchange pleasantries simply nodded sympathetically whenever one of us left to lean over the railing I couldn t bring myself

to return to the mess hall The thought of food repulsed me Nevertheless I was hungry One night unable to sleep listening to the snoring around me the growling stomach and the constant rattle of the nearby engine I spotted a couple of oranges alongside the bunk Impossible My eyes must have deceived me But no soon more followed big juicy oranges Neither did I care

Straight Outta

Darkness: A Story for God's Glory Faith Love, 2023-11-28 Straight Outta Darkness is a story for God's glory. One of the key principles of a successful addiction recovery is to bear witness of your own to give hope, encouragement, and strategies to those in the trenches and battlefields of it. This book tells the story of Faith Love's fall into the clutches of crack cocaine addiction and the miracle of her release from it. Being the product of a broken, dysfunctional family and often times debilitating poverty, Faith sought love and acceptance on the streets of a tough Chicago neighborhood filled with an underbelly of crime and drug infestation. It was here that over the course of her young adulthood, she became a violent gang member, had two babies, and got strung out on crack cocaine. She lost her home, her children to DCFS, and her dignity. This book is her redemption story, and it began when she became accountable to Jesus. His unexpected voice brought her to her knees, and His love led her on the path to victory where she remains today, 18 years and counting, to tell this story for God's glory.

Critical Autoethnography Robin M. Boylorn, Mark P. Orbe, 2020-11-26 Critical Autoethnography: Intersecting Cultural Identities in Everyday Life, Second Edition, examines the development of the field of critical autoethnography through the lens of social identity. Contributors situate interpersonal and intercultural experiences of gender, race, ethnicity, ability, citizenship, sexuality, and spirituality within larger systems of power, oppression, and privilege. Approachable and accessible narratives highlight intersectional experiences of marginalization and interrogate social injustices. The book is divided into three sections: Complexities of Identity, Performance Relationships in Diverse Contexts, and Pathways to Culturally Authentic Selves. Each thematic section includes provocative stories that critically engage personal and cultural narratives through a lens of difference. The chapters in the book highlight both unique and ubiquitous extraordinary and common experiences in the interior lives of people who are Othered because of at least two overlapping identities. The contributors offer first-person accounts to suggest critical responses and alternatives to injustice. The book also includes sectional summaries and discussion questions to facilitate dialogue and self-reflection. It is an excellent resource for undergraduate students, graduate students, educators, and scholars who are interested in autoethnography, interpersonal and intercultural communication, qualitative studies, personal narrative, cultural studies, and performance studies.
