Police Station Skills Practical Reference:

Police Station Skills for Legal Advisers Consultant Forensic Psychologist Eric Shepherd, Eric Shepherd, 2004-07-01
The third edition of Police Station Skills for Legal Advisers is an essential reference for those engaged in the active defence of clients in the police station. It is aimed at all legal advisers both solicitors and legal representatives whether seeking accreditation already accredited or responsible for supervising those seeking accreditation and for quality control of defence provided in the police station. The Accreditation Manual examines the defender role, introduces new and established practitioner tools and comprehensively addresses all the critical issues at each stage of skilled defence from the initial request to attend the police station including key consultations with the custody officer, the investigating officer, the client, the appropriate adult and the interpreter. It provides a unique insight into police investigation, custody processes and assessment by police staff and police surgeons, pre-interview disclosure and investigative interviewing. Investigative Interviewing
Ray Bull, 2014-02-10. This edited volume reviews the latest research on investigative interviewing in order to provide insights on the psychological processes of the person being interviewed as well as to offer guidelines for conducting credible and useful interviews. Critical and controversial areas are highlighted, e.g. false confessions, child interviewing in order to bring clarity to how these interrogations are to be conducted. Chapters focus on these areas to provide comprehensive views of theoretical evidence-based background as well as practical considerations of interrogation settings and procedures. The contributors are internationally respected scholars in the field of psychology and law with particular expertise in the interviews that are critical to legal proceedings. And attention is given to the criminal justice system in international perspective. A Textbook of General Practice Second Edition Patrick White, Ann Wylie, 2004-04-30. Aimed at medical students and junior doctors, A Textbook of General Practice 2e incorporates the essential information that a student needs to know and understand about general practice and being a general practitioner. The learning style of the book is based on experiential and reflective principles in keeping with modern educative theory and practice. It addresses changes in the curriculum and provides guidance on practical skills, the theory of providing good medicine and the larger considerations of encouraging life-long learning and professional development. This is a relatively new approach in line with the GMC's recommendations and the MRCGP exams. The new edition builds on the successful formula of the first by thoroughly reviewing and revising all content. Self-assessment sections have been added to all chapters and a glossary of terms is included at the end of the book. Thinking discussion points have been extended and additional student quotes included. A Textbook of General Practice Patrick White, Ann Wylie, 2004-04-30. Roberts,David W. Springer,2007 In this completely revised and updated classic Professors Roberts and Springer along with 51 justice oriented and forensic experts have set the standard of care for mental health treatment and the delivery of social services to crime victims juvenile and adult offenders and their families The second edition of Social Work in Juvenile and Criminal Justice Settings was published almost ten years ago in 1997 and was also translated to Chinese Now Dr Roberts Dr Springer and their team of 51 prominent chapter authors have done such a thorough job of updating and finding new authors that the end result is a comprehensive new book In this third edition 16 of the 31 chapters are new and specially written for this book. A growing number of mental health professionals are recognizing the need to examine current evidence based program developments, assessment and treatment practices with crime victims and offenders. This book focuses on the multiple roles and practices of justice social workers, also known as forensic social workers and crisis counselors. Many professional social workers, counselors and field placement students work in corrections and probation, forensic mental health, addictions treatment, juvenile justice, victim assistance and police social work settings. In the words of Dean Barbara W. White, former President, Council on Social Work Education and NASW, in her laudatory Foreword to this edition: "This groundbreaking book provides the necessary blueprints and guidelines for best practices with crime victims as well as juvenile and adult offenders in institutional, community based diversion and aftercare programs. This is the first all inclusive, authoritative, exceptionally well written volume on social policies and social work practices in both juvenile justice and criminal justice settings. This book is a landmark achievement. An increasing number of offenders and victims have been found to be International Developments in Investigative Interviewing Tom Williamson, Becky Milne, 2013-01-11. This book examines international developments in investigative interviewing. It analyses the cases and other factors leading to the paradigm shift in a number of countries; it considers issues that are of current interest to practitioners and academics, including the continuing calls for the use of torture, whether it is possible to detect deception and the contribution of investigative interviewing methods to concepts of therapeutic and restorative justice. The book responds to the recognition that there are currently no international human rights instruments that relate specifically to custodial questioning whilst also offering a critical analysis of the attempts to influence investigator and prosecutor behaviour by recourse to human rights. This book will be essential reading for practitioners designing and delivering investigative interviewing training programmes as well as academics and students studying international criminal justice.
