Reading Narrative Oklahoma Project For Discourse And Theory:

Reading with a Passion Jeffrey Staley, 2002-06-01 In this strikingly personal account of recent literary approaches to the Bible Jeffrey Staley shows how people's life experiences relate to what they read in the Scriptures He illustrates his argument from theories of autobiography where recent literary and feminist critiques provide him with tools for reflecting upon his childhood on a Navajo reservation and his family's five generations of contact with the Navajo people in northern Arizona and New Mexico Using Tony Hillerman's popular detective novels as a lens to refract his own childhood memories Staley investigates how his cross cultural childhood and family history have contributed to his understanding of the Fourth Gospel By combining such diverse materials as popular fiction medieval passion plays cultural anthropology rhetorical studies and autobiographical reflection Staley takes his readers on a fascinating spiritual and intellectual journey through the Gospel of John

Leadership at the Crossroads Joanne B. Ciulla, Donelson R. Forsyth, Michael A. Genovese, George R. Goethals, Lori Cox Han, Crystal L. Hoyt, 2008-10-30 What is leadership Not only has that question been debated since the beginning of human culture and society but it's a moving target based on the definer and the epoch The definition can be thought provoking and profound A leader is best when people barely know he exists not so good when people obey and acclaim him worse when they despise him Lao Tzu 6th century BC Or the profundity may lie shrouded in the prosaic A leader is one who has followers Peter Drucker 20th century However you define the concept today's challenges for leaders of all stripes are monumental and the need for effective leadership is huge More than anything this set travels farther and digs deeper than most leadership books It takes us from mere explanations of leadership to an understanding of it as part of the human condition Reading it should be at the top of the to do list for any leader in any era In Leadership at the Crossroads contributors from a wide variety of fields including management economics political science philosophy sociology history literature and psychology explore the many facets of leadership The set comprises Volume 1 Leadership and Psychology Volume 2 Leadership and Politics Volume 3 Leadership and the Humanities Collectively this set showcases traditional and emerging approaches to leadership in both theory and practice and raises new questions brought on by society's new challenges It also suggests solutions for developing and promoting leadership in the corporate world politics and diplomacy religion education non profits and the arts Whether identifying qualities that will serve a U S president well or the characteristics of the essential can do supervisor in today's corporation Leadership at the Crossroads supplies insights and intelligence that will help leaders make the most of the challenges and opportunities lying before them

An Ark on the Nile Keith Bodner, 2016 The opening sector of the book of Exodus is a powerful narrative and a striking example of the artistic qualities of the Pentateuch a facet of the text that occasionally is neglected in high level scholarship Exodus 1-2 is finely choreographed work that compresses a vast amount of material onto a limited textual canvas creating a story that appeals to readers of every age Resuming where the book of Genesis leaves off the last image of Genesis 50 is a coffin in Egypt primed for a sequel the first two chapters of Exodus combine a fast moving plot with some unique shades of characterization Israel s growth in Egypt the rise of a malevolent new king the birth of a hero and early experiences of adversity for the main character in the story to come The burden of slavery and miracle of salvation are introduced in this sector of text and become paradigmatic examples of divine redemption that reverberate throughout the Hebrew Bible and beyond An Ark on the Nile The Beginning of the Book of Exodus is a close reading of Exodus 1 2 that analyzes the story as a reasonably self contained unit but suggesting that major plot movements in the book of Exodus are foreshadowed and anticipated here Applying a number of insights from literary theory Keith Bodner offers an illustration of further integration of biblical studies with cross disciplinary narrative interpretation The New Literary Criticism and the New Testament Elizabeth Struthers Malbon, Edgar V. McKnight, 1994-10-01 This publication presents the rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament The tradition of study represented in the essays lies at the conjunction of developments in biblical studies and literary criticism 1 the exhaustion of New Testament historical criticism in general and redaction criticism in particular 2 the waning of Formalist New Critical approaches in literary study and 3 the emphasis upon the text in terms of language and discourse as the free play of signifiers The essays deal with theory exegesis and their interdependence in this new literary context However contributions of earlier epochs in the history of literary criticism and New Testament study are integrated into current approaches For example the issue of reference originating in the mimetic theories of classical antiquity is raised implicitly and explicitly Implications of literary study for theology are suggested The relationship between redaction critical and literary approaches is examined Theoretical and exegetical essays growing out of feminist literary study are offered Orality allegory deconstruction ideology sociological criticism rhetorical criticism narrative criticism as well as other themes and methods are discussed in the essays treatment of writings of the New Testament A rich variety of critical methodologies in contemporary literary study of the New Testament range of Western and non Western narrative strategies such as plot and plotlessness narrative metalepsis pluritemporality multisubjectivity myths folktales and magic It also demonstrates how her texts become the point of convergence of the West and the non West the feminine and the androcentric the real and the extra real as muted discourses resurface and traditional distinctions between categories are blurred in favor of alternate and new possibilities As this book is interdisciplinary in its approach it will appeal to a broad range of audience from those interested in Contemporary Francophone and Indian Ocean Literature to scholars in Women s Writing Post Colonial Studies and Narratology The Publishers Weekly ,1998
