wonder of discovery is the foundation of A Love of Reading For the last six years Robert Adams has presented an annual series of book reviews to sold out audiences Eighty per cent of Adams 3 000 subscribers in Toronto and Montreal renew for the following season This book is a selection of modern classics from a discriminating and entertaining guide Perfect for reading groups Quill Quire noting the jump in sales of any book reviewed by Adams has called the phenomenon The Adams Effect Truth Overcomes the Board Failte Lizzy Carroll, Dartmouth College. The Pleasure of Reading Eric Macfarlane, 2019-07-23 The Pleasure of Reading reflects on the joys of owning and reading books. It looks at the situations that lead people to become keen readers and the ways in which parents and teachers can encourage children's love of stories. It is critical of traditional methods of studying literature that deter many children from regarding reading as a pleasurable activity. The book also looks at the interests and passions that motivate novelists and the wide range of subjects on which they choose to write the kind of stories they tell, the themes that they explore and the skill with which they handle their plots, characters and settings. Particular attention is given to the novelist's role as a protester against injustice, persecution and the abuse of power. Bloomsbury Good Reading Guide Nick

The Space and Practice of Reading Chin Ee

Loh, 2017-02-10 Mirroring worldwide debates on social class, literacy rates and social change, this study explores the intersection between reading and social class in Singapore, one of the top scorers on the Programme for International Assessment (PISA) tests and questions the rhetoric of social change that does not take into account local spaces and practices. This comparative study of reading practices in an elite school and a government school in Singapore draws on practice and spatial perspectives to provide critical insight into how taken-for-granted practices and spaces of reading can be, in fact, unacknowledged spaces of inequity. Acknowledging the role of social class in shaping reading education is a start to reconfiguring current practices and spaces for more effective and equitable reading practices. This book shows how using localized, contextualized approaches sensitive to the home, school, national and global contexts can lead to more targeted policy and practice transformation in the area of reading instruction and intervention. Chapters in the book include: Becoming a Reader, Home, School Connections, Singaporean Boys Constructing Global Literate Selves, School-Nation Connections, Levelling the Reading Gap, Socio-Spatial Perspectives. The book will be relevant to literacy scholars and educators, library science researchers and sociologists interested in the intersection of class and literacy practices in the 21st century.

Conner, 2016-12-01 This book offers the first comprehensive discussion of the relationship between Modern Irish Literature and the Irish cinema, with twelve chapters written by experts in the field that deal with principal films, authors and directors. Authors discussed include George Bernard Shaw, Oscar Wilde, Liam O'Flaherty, Christy Brown, Edna O'Brien, James Joyce and Brian Friel. The films analysed in this volume include THE QUIET MAN, THE INFORMER, MAJOR BARBARA, THE GIRL WITH GREEN EYES, MY LEFT FOOT, THE PICTURE OF DORIAN GRAY, THE SNAPPER and DANCING AT LUGHNASA.
