Reading The Entrails An Alberta Ecohistory:

Reading the Entrails Norman Charles Conrad, 1999 Before the Fall of Imperial Rome priests cast the internal organs of sacrificial animals on temple floors claiming to be able to divine the future from these entrails By probing the remains of Alberta's past sacrifices reading her entrails Norman Conrad believes that we might dimly see an apparition of Alberta's future This controversial book vividly portrays the history of land and life in Alberta from the Ice Ages to the present Making no apology for his criticism of government regulators and large corporations Norman Conrad makes a strident plea for Alberta's dangerously imperiled environment and presents a model that can be applied anywhere Reading the Entrails

Norman Charles Conrad, 1999 Before the fall of Imperial Rome priests cast the guts of sacrificial animals on the temple floor claiming to be able to divine the future from these entrails By probing the remains of Alberta's past sacrifices reading the entrails the author believes we might dimly see an apparition of Alberta's future Reading the Entrails An Alberta Ecohistory vividly portrays the history of land and life in Alberta from the Ice Ages to the present Making no apologies for his criticism of government regulators and large corporations Conrad aims to strike a discussion at all levels by presenting his arguments intensely For those interested in natural history the environment and the future of Alberta's ecological resources this provocative book is essential reading Invested Indifference Kara Granzow, 2020-06-15 In 2004 Amnesty International characterized Canadian society as indifferent to high rates of violence against Indigenous women and girls When the Canadian government took another twelve years to launch a national inquiry that indictment seemed true Invested Indifference offers a divergent perspective by examining practices during three different periods in the place we now call Edmonton juxtaposing early settler texts documents concerning the former Charles Camsell Indian Hospital and contemporary online police materials Kara Granzow reaches a startling conclusion that what we see as societal indifference doesn't come from an absence of feeling but from a deep rooted and affective investment in framing specific lives as disposable Granzow demonstrates that through mechanisms such as the law medicine and control of land and space violence against Indigenous peoples has become symbolically and politically ensconced in the social construction of Canadian nationhood
