Reading With Dad:

Reading with Dad Richard Jorgensen, 2000 All of us have childhood memories of learning to read All of us know the importance of spending time with our children as they grow and learn Reading With Dad written by Richard Jorgensen and illustrated by Warren Hanson is a book that brings focus to the joys and love of reading and honors dads spending time with their children In a time of broken marriages and shut out dads Reading With Dad is a book that celebrates what should and could be It demonstrates the power of time spent together over the years and the rewards that await both father and child The story also carries us on a journey through the cycle of life as one generation sets an example for the next Jorgensen writes My hope about this book is that it encourages parents to be aware of the importance of reading to their children but I hope especially that it encourages fathers to have a special relationship with their children Dad's Playbook: Coaching Kids to Read: (Prepack) National Institute for Literacy, Education Dept (U S), 2009-02 Dad's Playbook, 2006
