Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood,2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices      Resources in Education ,2000      Reading History Sideways

Arland Thornton,2013-09-27 European and American scholars from the eighteenth through the mid twentieth centuries thought that all societies passed through the same developmental stages from primitive to advanced Implicit in this developmental paradigm one that has affected generations of thought on societal development was the assumption that one could read history sideways That is one could see what the earlier stages of a modern Western society looked like by examining contemporaneous so called primitive societies in other parts of the world In Reading History Sideways leading family scholar Arland Thornton demonstrates how this approach though long since discredited has permeated Western ideas and values about the family Further its domination of social science for centuries caused the misinterpretation of Western trends in family structure marriage fertility and parent child relations Revisiting the developmental fallacy Thornton here traces its central role in changes in the Western world from marriage to gender roles to adolescent sexuality Through public policies aid programs and colonialism it continues to reshape families in non Western societies as well      General Index to the Journals and Sessional Papers of the Legislative Assembly, Ontario, 1901 to 1912 Ontario. Configurations of Rape in the Hebrew Bible Frank M. Yamada, 2008 In Configurations of Rape in the Hebrew Bible Frank M Yamada explores the compelling similarity among three rape narratives found in the Hebrew Scriptures These three stories the rape of Dinah Genesis 34 the rape of an unnamed concubine Judges 19 and the rape of Tamar daughter of David 2 Samuel 13 move through the same plot progression an initial sexual violation of a woman leads to escalating violence among men resulting in some form of social fragmentation In this intriguing study Yamada draws from the disciplines of literary and narrative criticism feminist biblical interpretation and cultural anthropology to argue for a family resemblance among these three stories about rape
