Reading for Rhetoric Caroline Shrodes, Clifford Anthon Josephson, James R. Wilson, 1979-01-01      Reading for Rhetoric: Applications to Writing Caroline Shrodes, Clifford Anthon Josephson, James R. Wilson, 1975      Reading for Rhetoric: Applications to Writing, 1972      Reading, Writing, and the Rhetorics of Whiteness Wendy Ryden, Ian Marshall, 2013-03

In this volume Ryden and Marshall bring together the field of composition and rhetoric with critical whiteness studies to show that in our post race era whiteness and racism not only survive but actually thrive in higher education As they examine the effects of racism on contemporary literacy practices and the rhetoric by which white privilege maintains and reproduces itself Ryden and Marshall consider topics ranging from the emotional investment in whiteness to the role of personal narrative in reconstituting racist identities to critiques of the foundational premises of writing programs steeped in repudiation of despised discourses Marshall and Ryden alternate chapters to sustain a multi layered dialogue that traces the rhetorical complexities and contradictions of teaching English and writing in a university setting Their lived experiences as faculty and administrators serve to underscore the complex code of whiteness even as they push to decode it and demonstrate how their own pedagogical practices are raced and racialized in multiple ways Collectively the essays ask instructors and administrators to consider more carefully the pernicious nature of whiteness in their professional activities and how it informs our practices Publisher's note      Reading and Writing for Civic Literacy Donald Lazere, 2015-12-03

This brief edition of a groundbreaking textbook addresses the need for college students to develop critical reading writing and thinking skills for self defense in the contentious arena of American civic rhetoric Designed for first year or more advanced composition and critical thinking courses it is one third shorter than the original edition more affordable for students and easier for teachers to cover in a semester or quarter It incorporates up to date new readings and analysis of controversies like the growing inequality of wealth in America and the debates in the 2008 presidential campaign expressed in opposing viewpoints from the political left and right Exercises help students understand the ideological positions and rhetorical patterns that underlie such opposing views Widely debated issues of whether objectivity is possible and whether there is a liberal or conservative bias in news and entertainment media as well as in education itself are foregrounded as topics for rhetorical analysis      Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06

Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction      Reading for Rhetoric Caroline Shrodes, 1965      Classical Rhetorical Argumentation for the Rhetorical Critic Mika Hietanen, 2025-07-08 This book offers a reassessment of argumentation in classical rhetoric foregrounding its rational dimension Moving beyond introductions it provides insights from Aristotle Quintilian and other ancient thinkers while addressing common misconceptions and offering clarifications that are particularly valuable for the rhetorical critic Adopting a Scandinavian rhetorical perspective this book argues that classical rhetoric offers enduring tools for both the analysis and the construction of persuasive argumentation By bridging theory and practice it demonstrates how classical rhetoric remains highly relevant while also naturally integrating with analyses that focus on classical concepts such as ethos pathos or style whether through neo Aristotelian methods or contemporary approaches rooted in the classical rhetorical tradition Key concepts are explored in dedicated chapters the art of logos based argumentation is reassessed enthymeme and epicheireme structures are examined and topoi and staseis are discussed in relation to their later developments A chapter on the centenary of rhetorical criticism traces its evolution from Herbert Wichelns 1925 to today proposing a new template for the rhetorical critic This concise yet comprehensive book will interest intermediate and advanced students as well as scholars of rhetoric argumentation persuasion speech and writing studies and communication studies

Byzantine Secular Poetry, 1025-1081 Floris Bernard,2014-07-17 In the mid eleventh century secular Byzantine poetry attained a hitherto unseen degree of wit vividness and personal involvement chiefly exemplified in the poetry of Christophoros Mitylenaios Ioannes Mauropous and Michael Psellos This is the first volume to consider this poetic activity as a whole critically reconsidering modern assumptions about Byzantine poetry and focusing on Byzantine conceptions of the role of poetry in society By providing a detailed account of the various media through which poetry was presented to its readers and by tracing the initial circulation of poems this volume takes an interest in the Byzantine reader and his her reading habits and strategies allowing aspects of performance and visual representation rarely addressed to come to the fore It also examines the social interests that motivated the composition of poetry establishing a connection with the extraordinary social mobility of the time Self representative strategies are analyzed against the background of an unstable elite struggling to find moral justification which allows the study to raise the question of patronage examine the discourse used by poets to secure material rewards and explain the social dynamics of dedicatory epigrams Finally gift exchange is explored as a medium that underlines the value of poetry and confirms the exclusive nature of intellectual friendship

Baca, 2008-05-26 Conventional scholarship on written communication positions the Western alphabet as a precondition for literacy Thus pictographic non verbal writing practices of Mesoamerica remain obscured by representations of lettered speech This book examines how contemporary Mestiz scripts challenge alphabetic dominance thereby undermining the colonized territories of writing Strategic weavings of Aztec and European inscription systems not only promote historically grounded accounts of how recorded information is expressed across cultures but also speak to emerging studies on visual multimodal education Baca Espinosa argues that Mestiz literacies advance new ways of reading and writing applicable to diverse classrooms of the twenty first century

Bayne, Whitney Gegg-Harrison, Dev Crasta, Alessandra DiMauro, 2024-04-05 Offering a multidisciplinary exploration of flow and the often nebulous ways it is conceptualized and operationalized in writing pedagogy this book addresses a critical gap in writing studies Bringing together practice based and scholarly perceptions it outlines the key
