Readings From Voices Of A Peoples History Of The United States:

Readings from Voices of a People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Anthony Arnove, 2006-11-07 Bold and empowering words from America's struggles past and present are resurrected here by some of our leading living voices. Authors Howard Zinn and Anthony Arnove are joined here by Danny Glover, Sarah Jones, Paul Robeson Jr, Lili Taylor, Wallace Shawn, Marisa Tomei, and Kurt Vonnegut perform the rousing words of dissent that have shaped and quickened the pulse of a nation. The audio CD consists of twenty-one readings thoughtfully selected by Zinn and Arnove from Voices of a People's History of the United States, the long-awaited primary source companion. Voices of A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Anthony Arnove, 2009 This updated companion to Howard Zinn's classic A People's History of the United States Harper Perennial 2005 brings together the powerful words and actions of women and men of all races and creeds who though mostly powerless themselves have made change in America across the centuries. The original source book for Matt Damon's The People Speak series on The History Channel, this classic work from Zinn is a major new release. Voices of a People's History of the United States in the 21st Century Anthony Arnove, Haley Pessin, 2023-11-07 Twenty-first century social movements come to life through speeches, essays, and other documents of activism, protest, and social change. Gathering more than 100 texts from social movements that have shaped the 21st century, this powerful book includes contributions from Angela Y. Davis, Nick Estes, Colin Kaepernick, Rebecca Solnit, Christian Smalls, Viet Thanh Nguyen, Howard Zinn, Rev. William Barber, Bree Newsome, Kimberl Crenshaw, Tarana J. Burke, Dream Defenders, Sins Invalid, Mariame Kaba, Naomi Klein, Keeanga-Yamahtta Taylor, Linda Sarsour, Chelsea E. Manning, Chrishaun CeCe McDonald, Julian Brave NoiseCat, H. Melt, and others. Inspired by the original Voices of a People's History of the United States, the book features speeches, essays, poems, and calls to action from Black Lives Matter, MeToo, Indigenous struggles, immigrant rights activists, the environmental movement, disability justice organizers, and frontline workers during the global pandemic who spoke out against the life-threatening conditions of their labor. Together, their words remind us that history is made not only by the rich and powerful but by ordinary people taking collective action. Rethinking America's Past Robert Cohen, Sonia E. Murrow, 2021-11-01 No introductory work of American history has had more influence over the past forty years than Howard Zinn's A People's History of the United States, which since its publication in 1980 has sold more than three million copies. Zinn's iconoclastic critique of American militarism, racism, and capitalism has drawn bitter criticism from the Right, most recently from President Donald Trump, who at his White House Conference on American History in 2020 denounced Zinn as a Left propagandist and accused teachers aligned with Zinn of indoctrinating students to hate America and be ashamed of its history. Rethinking America's Past is the first work to use archival and classroom evidence to assess the impact that Zinn's classic work has had on historical teaching and learning and on American culture. This evidence refutes Trump's charges, showing that rather than indoctrinating students, Zinn's book has been used by teachers to have students debate and rethink conventional versions of

American history Rethinking America's Past also explores the ways Zinn's work fostered deeper more critical renderings of the American past in movies and on stage and television and traces the origins and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of A People's History in light of more recent historical scholarship A People's History of the United States Howard Zinn, Kathy Emery, Ellen Reeves, 2003 This brilliant and moving history of the American people Library Journal presents more than 500 years of American social and cultural history going well beyond the wars and presidencies contained in traditional texts to tell the stories of working men and women Abridged for use in the classroom Howard Zinn on History Howard Zinn, 2011-06-14 Howard Zinn began work on his first book for his friends at Seven Stories Press in 1996 a big volume collecting all his shorter writings organized by subject The themes he chose reflected his lifelong concerns war history law class means and ends and race Throughout his life Zinn had returned again and again to these subjects continually probing and questioning yet rarely reversing his convictions or the vision that informed them The result was The Zinn Reader Five years later starting with Howard Zinn on History updated editions of sections of that mammoth tome were published in inexpensive stand alone editions This second edition of Howard Zinn on History brings together twenty seven short writings on activism electoral politics the Holocaust Marxism the Iraq War and the role of the historian as well as portraits of Eugene Debs John Reed and Jack London effectively showing how Zinn's approach to history evolved over nearly half a century and at the same time sharing his fundamental thinking that social movements people getting together for peace and social justice can change the course of history That core belief never changed Chosen by Zinn himself as the shorter writings on history he believed to have enduring value originally appearing in newspapers like the Boston Globe or the New York Times in magazines like Z the New Left the Progressive or the Nation or in his book Failure to Quit these essays appear here as examples of the kind of passionate engagement he believed all historians and indeed all citizens of whatever profession need to have standing in sharp contrast to the notion of objective or neutral history espoused by some It is time that we scholars begin to earn our keep in this world he writes in The Uses of Scholarship And in Freedom Schools about his experiences teaching in Mississippi during the remarkable Freedom Summer of 1964 he adds Education can and should be dangerous

Howard Zinn on War Howard Zinn, 2011-06-14 Howard Zinn began work on his first book for his friends at Seven Stories Press in 1996 a big volume collecting all his shorter writings organized by subject The themes he chose reflected his lifelong concerns war history law class means and ends and race Throughout his life Zinn had returned again and again to these subjects continually probing and questioning yet rarely reversing his convictions or the vision that informed them The result was The Zinn Reader Five years later starting with Howard Zinn on History updated editions of sections of that mammoth tome were published in inexpensive stand alone editions This second edition of Howard Zinn on War is a collection of twenty six short writings chosen by the author to represent his thinking on a subject that concerned and fascinated him throughout his career He reflects on the wars against Iraq the war in Kosovo the Vietnam War World War II and on the meaning of war generally in a world of nations that can't seem to stop destroying each other. These readings appeared first in magazines and newspapers including the Progressive and the Boston Globe as well as in Zinn's books Failure to Quit Vietnam, The Logic of Withdrawal, The Politics of History, and Declarations of Independence. Here we see Zinn's perspective as a World War II veteran and peace activist who lived through the most devastating wars of the twentieth century and questioned every one of them with his combination of integrity and historical acumen. In his essay Just and Unjust War, Zinn challenges us to fight for justice with struggle but without war. He writes in After the War (2006) that while governments bring us into war, their power is dependent on the obedience of the citizenry. When that is withdrawn, governments are helpless. In Howard Zinn on War, his message is clear: The abolition of war has become not only desirable but absolutely necessary if the planet is to be saved. It is an idea whose time has come.

Black History Is for Everyone Brian Jones, 2025-09-30 A longtime educator explores how the study of Black history challenges our understanding of race, nation, and the stories we tell about who we are. Black history is under attack from powerful forces that seek to excise it from classrooms, libraries, and the popular imagination. Yet its opponents fail to understand a simple truth: the best education makes us uncomfortable. It challenges our assumptions, helps us see larger forces at work, and gives us glimpses of alternate futures. In Black History Is for Everyone, Brian Jones offers a meditation on the power of Black history using his own experiences as a lifelong learner and classroom teacher to question everything from the radicalism of the American Revolution to the meaning of race and nation. With warmth and immersive storytelling, Jones encourages us to delve deeper into our collective history, explores how curiosity about our world is essential, and reminds us that with stakes so high, the effort is worth it.

The Blast Alexander Berkman, 2005 Explosive writing, reporting, and rhetoric of Berkman, Emma Goldman, and others who attempted revolution in 1916-17.

Making A Killing Bob Torres, 2007-11-01 Suggest to the average leftist that animals should be part of broader liberation struggles, and once they stop laughing, you'll find yourself casually dismissed. With a focus on labor, property, and the life of commodities, Making a Killing contains key insights into the broad nature of domination, power, and hierarchy. It explores the intersections between human and animal oppressions in relation to the exploitative dynamics of capitalism, combining nuts and bolts Marxist political economy, a pluralistic anarchist critique, as well as a searing assessment of the animal rights movement. Bob Torres challenges conventional anti-capitalist thinking and convincingly advocates for the abolition of animals in industry and on the dinner plate. Making A Killing is sure to spark wide debate in the animal rights and anarchist movements for years to come.

Table Of Contents I Taking Equality Seriously II Chained Commodities III Property, Violence, and the Roots of Oppression IV Animal Rights and Wrongs V You Cannot Buy the Revolution Advance praise for Making A Killing Bob Torres Making a Killing draws a very straight line between capitalism and the oppressive system of animal agribusiness. Drawing from social anarchist theory, Torres provides a convincing argument that in order to fight animal exploitation, we must also fight capitalism, and in doing so, animal rights activists will need to reconsider their methods and redirect their focus. While his critiques of the animal rights movements large organizations may not earn him friends in high places such considerations are crucial to keeping the movement on track and for preventing stagnation Making a Killing is an important work from a new voice in animal advocacy that will surely spark heated discussions amongst activists from all corners of the movement Ryan MacMichael vegblog org In Making A Killing The Political Economy of Animal Rights Bob Torres takes an important and timely look at the animal rights movement calling for a synthetic approach to all oppression human and animal His analytical framework draws together Marxism social anarchist theory and an abolitionist approach to animal rights to provide a timely social analysis that will no doubt have profound effects on the animal rights movement literature Gary L Francione Distinguished Professor of Law Rutgers University Bob Torres s socioeconomic analysis of nonhuman animal use is a welcome and important addition to the understanding of human nonhuman relations at the beginning of the 21st century In particular Making a Killing makes vital a contribution to understanding the role of the property status of animals and the continuing strength of various welfarist positions on the ethics and indeed the economics of the human utilisation of other animals Making a Killing will become required reading for social scientists and others interested in modern social movements and the socioeconomic forces that shape their activities and their claims making Dr Roger Yates Lecturer in sociology at University College Dublin Republic of Ireland This is the book I ve been waiting for Making A Killing is a rare and powerful example of first rate scholarship a searing critique and lively declaration of the rights of animals and humans You will walk away from this book with a clear understanding as to why social justice movements for people must take animal rights seriously and vice versa Bob Torres has forever deepened my thinking about these relationships David Naguib Pellow vegetarian animal rights and anti racist activist and Professor of Ethnic Studies University of California San Diego and author of Garbage Wars The Struggle for Environmental Justice in Chicago and Resisting Global Toxics Transnational Movements for Environmental Justice Bob Torres is assistant professor of sociology at St Lawrence University received his PhD from Cornell and is co author of Vegan Freak Being Vegan in a Non Vegan World His writings have appeared in Critical Sociology The Journal of Latinos and Education International Journal of Occupational and Environmental Health and Satya magazine

The People Speak Anthony Arnone, Colin Firth, 2012-09-13 The idea was simple take the most impassioned speeches about the fight for what is right and bring them to life for a new generation COLIN FIRTH The People Speak tells the story of Britain through the voices of the visionaries dissenters rebels and everyday folk who took on the Establishment and stood up for what they believed in Here are their stories letters speeches and songs from John Ball to Daniel Defoe from Thomas Paine to Oscar Wilde from the peasants revolts to the suffragists to the anti war demonstrators of today Spanning almost 1 000 years and over 150 individual voices these are some of the most powerful words in our history Compiled by Academy Award winning actor Colin Firth influential writer Anthony Arnone and acclaimed historian David Horspool The People Speak reminds us that history is not something gathering dust on a library shelf and that democracy has never been a spectator
