C. Kline III,Justin Tiwald,2014-06-17 Challenges traditional views to consider Xunzi as a religious thinker Xunzi a founding figure in the Confucian tradition is one of the world s great philosophers and theorists of religion For much of the last century his work has been seen largely as critical of religion particularly the popular beliefs and invocations of supernatural forces that underpin so many religious rituals Contributors to this volume challenge this view and offer a more sophisticated picture of Xunzi He emerges not as critic but rather as an adherent of religion who seeks to give religious practices meaning even though many religious beliefs are mistaken or self serving Each essay offers a powerful illustration of Xunzi as both a religious devotee and as a philosopher of religion drawing on a wide array of disciplines and methodologies Classic Chinese Poems of Mourning and Texts of Lament Victor H. This book examines Mohism as a movement in early China focusing on the Mohists pursuit of power Fashioning themselves as grassroots activists the Mohists hoped to impact the elite by gaining entry in its community and influencing it from within To create a less violent world they deployed strategies of persuasion and negotiation but did not discard counterviolence in their dealings with the ruling class In executing their activism the Mohists produced knowledge that allowed them to hone their nonviolent strategies as well as to mount armed resistance to aggression In addition the Mohists paid significant attention to the issue of personhood constructing a self cultivation tradition unsparing in its demands for overcoming human conditions that would impede their performance as activists This book situates Mohism in the history of nonviolent activism and in that of negotiation and conflict resolution What Can't Be Said Yasuo Deguchi, Jay L. Garfield, Graham Priest, Robert H. Sharf, 2021 This multi authored monograph argues that the use of paradox and contradictions in contrast to in typical Western thought can deepen rather than disprove philosophical thought and discussion Here the authors apply this view to East Asian philosophy examining two classical Daoist texts the Daodejing and the Zhuangzi and the trajectory of Buddhism in East Asia including the San Lun Tiantai Chan and Zen traditions culminating with the Kyoto school of philosophy in the twentieth century The work ultimately concludes that contradictory positions illuminate deeper understandings of inconsistencies in reality and in the world The Routledge Handbook of Liberal Naturalism Mario De Caro, David Macarthur, 2022-03-14 The central question of naturalism the relation of philosophy to science was one of the defining strands of twentieth century thought and remains a major source of debate and controversy Today many argue that philosophy should fold itself into the sciences especially the natural sciences Liberal naturalists argue that such scientific naturalism demands reductive and Procrustean conceptions of knowledge and reality Moreover many philosophical problems are beyond the scope of the sciences such as the nature of persons the normativity of the space of reasons and how best to understand the peculiar mix of objectivity and subjectivity of ethics and art The Routledge Handbook of Liberal Naturalism is the first collection to present a comprehensive overview of liberal naturalism a philosophical outlook that lies between scientific naturalism and supernaturalism Comprising 37 chapters by an international team of contributors it examines important cutting edge topics including what is liberal naturalism is metaphysics a viable project naturalism in the history of philosophy including Hume Dewey and Quine contemporary liberal naturalists such as P F Strawson John McDowell Hilary Putnam and John Rawls related kinds of naturalism including subject naturalism common sense naturalism and biological naturalism the bearing of liberal naturalism on contemporary debates in epistemology philosophy of mind ethics and aesthetics Essential reading for students and researchers in all areas of philosophy this volume will be of particular interest for those studying philosophical naturalism philosophy of science metaphysics epistemology philosophy of mind ethics and aesthetics Eastern Philosophy Victoria S.
