▼ Angelic Science, Evolution of Opinion about Evolution, New Age Resonances, Interminable Debate?, Lessons about Gatekeeping (David Austin's Reason, Science, Life, and Mind)

▼ Interminable Debate?

- Creationists and evolutionary theorists have been debating for a long time, but neither group has been able to prove their theory. They keep arguing because they both want to prove that their beliefs are correct
  - Evolutionary theory has been tested and proven to be true, while Scientific Creationism has not been proven and does not explain things well
- Many people think that the two theories (evolution and creationism) are equal in importance, but this is not true. This misunderstanding is caused by the fact that many high school students in the US do not get a good science education, which means they don't understand the basics of evolution (as explained in Chapter 1 of Abusing Science). It is not only the teachers who are to blame for this, but many people
  - Scientific Creationists continue to argue for their beliefs, even though the theory they support has been shown to be wrong. It is not unusual for people to keep believing something even when it has been proven wrong, but why this happens depends on the individual situation. Here, some brief ideas are offered about why this might be:
    - People have a natural tendency to use design explanations (PDEs) too much. Paul Bloom from Yale University and Thomas Reid from the 18th century both suggested this idea
    - People often make wrong decisions because they don't understand the chances of something happening. This has been studied a lot by psychologists, and even smart people can be bad at understanding the
