Stone, 2023-07-14 It has been over two decades since the publication of the last major edited collection focused on psychoanalysis and early modern culture In Shakespeare studies the New Historicism and cognitive psychology have hindered a dynamic conversation engaging depth oriented models of the mind from taking place The essays in New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare Cool Reason and Seething Brains seek to redress this situation by engaging a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic theory and criticism from Freud to the present to read individual plays closely These essays show how psychoanalytic theory helps us to rethink the plays history of performance their treatment of gender sexuality and race their view of history and trauma and the ways in which they anticipate contemporary psychodynamic treatment Far from simply calling for a conventional return to Freud the essays collected here initiate an exciting conversation between Shakespeare studies and psychoanalysis in the hopes of radically transforming both disciplines It is time to listen once again to seething brains      Psychoanalytic Readings of Hawthorne's Romances David B. Diamond, 2021-07-08 Offering innovative psychoanalytic readings of Nathaniel Hawthorne's four romances this volume systematically applies Freudian theory to present significant new insights into the psychology of Hawthorne's characters and their fates By critically examining scenes in which the protagonists confront past traumas Diamond underscores the transformative potential which Hawthorne attributes to encounters with the unconscious Psychoanalytic narrative technique is employed to interpret the psychological crises all hidden by Hawthorne in narrative gaps in The Scarlet Letter The House of the Seven Gables The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun The protagonists transformations that are illuminated are crucial to an understanding of the trajectory and resolution of the romances The text will benefit both academic and non academic readers who seek a deeper understanding of the psychology of Hawthorne's romances It will be of particular interest to educators and researchers of applied psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic technique Since its conclusions challenge many currently held critical views this volume is especially relevant to scholars of Hawthorne studies interdisciplinary literary studies and 19th century American literature      Reading Freud's Reading Sander L. and Reader a psychoanalyst demonstrates through a series of careful readings that a psychoanalytic reading of a literary work in which one is aware of the response the writer is trying to elicit from the reader greatly enhances one's understanding of the work Coen asks what the author and the reader want from each other and how they cope with these needs in their literary encounters
