Mulliken Norton, 1907 Reading Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris and the Nineteenth-Century Prose Poem Seth Whidden, 2022 A study of Charles Baudelaire's Le Spleen de Paris 1859 that explores how the practice of reading prose poems might be different from reading poetry in verse It illustrates how Baudelaire wrote texts that he considered poems and how this form shows aspects of his poetic modernity

Reading with a Purpose, 1927 Powers of Reading Peter Szendy, 2025-03-11 A historical literary and philosophical study that transforms our understanding of reading Peter Szendy offers a subtle persuasive and unprecedented account of the time of reading and its scene of address one that is as archaic as it is contemporary When we read are we listening to a voice or being read to If it is not a private and monologic exercise how do we understand the populated scene of reading What reads when we read and how does reading push and pull between temporalities and voices Why do we keep leaving the text when we seek to obey the injunction to stay within its terms Questions such as these produce a fresh even startling consideration of a wide range of literary and popular texts including Hobbes Leviathan Flaubert's Madame Bovary Kant's moral injunctions Sade Valéry Blanchot and de Certeau but also modern fiction film audiobooks and hypertext The power of reading turns out to belong to its surprising engagement with time and direction the deliberate reader stays close but strays tries to fill in the gaps but gets pushed back by a countercurrent The key to the text is sought outside only to be led back to the text and its failure to deliver a final answer Equally at odds with older versions of literary formalism that insist on the self-referentiality of the text as well as contextualists who scour an external social order to discover the truth of the text Szendy approaches that very conflict as an oscillation constitutive of reading itself Paradoxically reading is sustained precisely by what interrupts its teleological flow The result is a comic profound and timely reconceptualization of reading which rushes forward only to find itself pushed back into the heart of the text which discovers that this incessant breaking from the text this headlong rushing ahead to the world outside the text is a sequence of overreach delay and return that forms the ragged rhythm of reading itself Powers of Reading is a patient brilliant and illuminating inquiry into the crosscurrents of voice and address one that speaks to the speed and complexity of our time how we are upended by our forward propulsions to consider how multiple voice action and passivity are all rearranged in the scene of reading Judith Butler Distinguished Professor in the Graduate School University of California Berkeley Lay Readings of the Bible in Early Modern Europe Erminia Ardissino,Élise Boillet,2019-12-30 The aim of this collection of essays is to bring together new comparative research studies on the place and role of the Bible in early modern Europe It focuses on lay readings of the Bible interrogating established historical social and confessional paradigms It highlights the ongoing process of negotiation between the faithful congregation and ecclesiastical institutions in both Protestant and Catholic countries It shows how even in the latter where biblical translations were eventually forbidden the laity drew upon the Bible as a source of ethical cultural and spiritual inspiration contributing to the evolution of central aspects of modernity Interpreting the Bible could indeed be a means of feeding critical perspectives and independent thought and behavior Contributors Erminia Ardissino Xavier Bisaro lise Boillet Gordon Campbell Jean Pierre Cavaill Sabrina Corbellini Fran ois Dupuigrenet Desroussilles Max Engammare Wim Fran ois Ignacio J Garc a Pinilla Stefano Gattei Margriet Hoogvliet Tadhg hAnnrach in and Concetta Pennuto The Temple University Catalogue Temple University,1911 Readings in Thanatology John D.
