40 More Years James Carville, 2009-05-05 Every four years Americans hold a presidential election Somebody wins and somebody loses That's life But 2008 was an anomaly The election of President Barack Obama is about something far bigger than four or even eight years in the White House Since 2004 Americans have been witnessing and participating in the emergence of a Democratic majority that will last not four but forty years To understand the emergence of a lasting Democratic majority we'll first have to spend a few moments reviewing the profound and relentless incompetence of the Bush administration and the pursuant collapse of the Republican Party That means looking back at the failure of Republican ideas including a wholesale rejection of the myth of conservative superiority on the economy and holding our noses long enough to survey the gallery of truly repellent scoundrels scandals and screwups that the Republican Party has been responsible for over the last eight years After completing the unpleasant but edifying task of autopsying the Republican Party we'll examine the underpinnings of Democratic victories in 2004 2006 and 2008 and make the argument for why Democrats are going to keep winning Two words young people In short the Republicans are going to keep getting spanked again and again for forty more years because we're right and they're wrong and Americans know it
