Real And Imagined Worlds The Novel And Social Science:

Real and Imagined Worlds Morroe Berger, 1977 Radical Interactionism and Critiques of Contemporary Culture

Norman K. Denzin, 2021-04-30 Norman K Denzin has gathered a team of leading experts to explore and showcase a variety of topics in the field of symbolic interaction Some of the topics explored include extending dramaturgical and grounded theory and new empirical and theoretical inquiries into fashion journalism stigma police body work autobiography and gender studies Routledge Revivals: Barnaby Rudge (1987) Thomas Jackson Rice, 2018-02-01 Originally published in 1987

Barnaby Rudge is a comprehensive collection of bibliographical resources surrounding Dickens fifth novel Barnaby Rudge The book addresses what the author terms a prevalent lack of research surrounding the novel The collection lists bibliographic references which not only looks at the novel itself but also covers older resources that interested Dickens s first critics such as the originality of the settings and characters The book s core focus is examining the novel s historical subject matter in the context of the social and political context in which it was written The book acts as a core resource for research on Barnaby Rudge Fiction as Research Practice Patricia Leavy, 2016-06-16 Patricia Leavy herself both a highly published qualitative researcher and a novelist explores the overlaps and intersections between these two ways of understanding and describing human experience including a methodological introduction and five stories showing these methods in action

The Individual and the Authority Figure in Egyptian Prose Literature Yona Sheffer, 2018-05-15 The Individual and the Authority Figure in Egyptian Prose Literature explores and analyses political conflicts between individuals and authority figures as those conflicts are depicted in thirteen Egyptian novels written from 1957 to the last years of Mubarak s presidency The book discusses the various reasons that lead an individual or a group of people from all strata of society common people intellectuals and public figures to confront policemen senior security officials and even the heads of the state It further examines how the conflicts develop and what their outcomes are in the short term as well as in the long term for both the individuals and the authority figures In this context the volume also examines the possibility of standing against an oppressive regime and even overcoming it This text argues that while the authority figure initially subdues individuals who confront them their victory is short term In the long term their cruelties bring about sown deaths either by the individuals themselves or by their relatives Furthermore large assemblies of people can confront the regime with success These discoveries along with other findings presented in the book remain relevant to the reality in the Middle East and the events leading to the Arab Spring Joyce Cary : A Critical Study A. Nirmala, 2001 Joyce Cary 1888 1957 Is A Forerunner Of Post Colonial Thinking Yet Remains A Critically Marginalised Political Writer In British Literature This Book Focuses On Cary S Representation Of The Complexity In Cultural Politics Using Frantz Fanon S Expos Of The Mechanics Of Colonialism As A Tool It Seeks To Establish Cary S Credibility As A Political Writer The Book Also Reiterates The Necessity For Rehistoricizing Cary S Political Position By Examining His Novels Set In Africa Ireland As Well As In England

Highlighting His Subtle Understanding Of The Dialectics Of Power And British Liberalism The Expertise With Which He Has Translated The Liberal Dilemma Into The Novel Form Cast In A Dialogic Manner Is Also Of Equal Interest In The Post Modern Context What Distinguishes This Work From Many Others That Apply Theoretical Positions Mechanically Is The Disciplined Manner In Which Theoretical Premises Are Tested And Measured Against Cary S Own Political And Social Attitudes Qualitative Research In Education Robert R. Sherman,Rodman B. Webb,2004-08-02 Published in the year 1988 Qualitative Research In Education is a valuable contribution to the field of Education Re/Invention Patricia Leavy,2022-09-04 From Patricia Leavy a leader in arts based research this is the first comprehensive guide to what social fiction is and how to write it In an engaging personal tone Leavy explores the unique contribution that creative writing such as novels series and short stories can make to addressing qualitative research questions In depth discussions of narrative models such as the three act structure and elements such as plot metaphor dialogue are accompanied by excerpts from Leavy s published fiction reflections on the writing process and technical suggestions The book offers evaluation criteria for social fiction as well as practical publishing advice Instructive features include tip bubbles with additional writing hints end of chapter Skill Building and Rethink Your Research exercises and an appendix with suggested readings Handbook of the Arts in Qualitative Research ,2022 Evolution, Sacrifice, and Narrative Carol Colatrella,2016-07-22 First published in 1990 Balzac Zola and Faulkner all drew upon the principles of evolutionary theory to represent man s place in nature and his struggle for survival in their major series La Com die humaine Rougon Macquart and the Yoknapatawpha fiction This book focuses on the first novels in each author s series La P re Goriot La Fortune des Rougon and Flags in the Dust and considers how each novel relates to its series and derives a definition of the naturalistic roman fleuve To describe this development the issues of how a scientific idea becomes refracted in a literary genre and how the naturalistic novel developed out of the realistic novel are considered Framing Law and Crime Caroline Joan "Kay" S. Picart,Michael Hviid Jacobsen,Cecil Greek,2016-04-01 This cutting edge edited collection brings together 17 scholarly essays on two of cinema and television s most enduring and powerful themes law and crime With contributions by many of the most prominent scholars in law sociology criminology and film Framing Law and Crime offers a critical survey of a variety of genres and media integrating descriptions of technique with critical analysis and incorporating historical and socio political critique The first set of essays brings together accounts of the history of the Law and Cinema Movement the groundbreaking genre of post apocalyptic fiction and the policy setting genesis of a Canadian documentary The second section of the book turns to the examination of a range of international or global films with an eye to assessing the strengths frailties and possible functions of law as depicted in fictional cinema After an international focus in the second section the third section focuses on law and crime in American film and television inclusive of both fictional and documentary modes of narration This section s expansion beyond film narratives to include television series attempts to broaden the scope of the edited collection in terms of media

discussed it is also a nod to how the big screen although still a dominant force in American popular culture now has to compete to some extent with the small screen for influence over the collective American popular cultural imaginary The fourth section titled brings together various chapters that attempt to instantiate how a Gothic Criminology could be useful as an interpretative framework in analyzing depictions of law and crime in film and television The fifth and final section covers issues of pedagogy epistemology and ethics in relation to moving images of law and crime Merging wide ranging analyses with nuanced scholarly interpretations Framing Law and Crime examines key concepts and showcases original research reflecting the latest interdisciplinary trends in the scholarship of the moving image It addresses not only scholars but also fans and will heighten the appreciation of connoisseurs and newcomers to these topics alike The T.N. authors and information about all reprintings partial or full The index is unusually complete and contains the titles of Wright's works real and fictional characters in the works entries relating to significant places and events in the author's life important literary terminology and much additional information Method Meets Art, Second Edition Patricia Leavy, 2015-01-23 This book has been replaced by Method Meets Art Third Edition ISBN 978 1 4625 3897 3 Emotions through Literature Mariano Longo, 2019-07-23 Engaging with the wide sociological literature on emotions this book explores the social representation of emotions their management and their effects by making reference to creative sources With a specific focus on literary narrative including the works of figures such as Dante Austen Manzoni Tolstoy and Kundera the author draws out the capacity of literary works to describe and represent both the external aspects of social relations and the inner motivations of the involved actors An interdisciplinary study that combines sociology narratology philosophy historical analysis and literary criticism Emotions through Literature invites us to re think the role of emotions in sociological analysis employing literary narratives to give plausible intellectual responses to the double nature of emotions their being both individual and social Fiction and the Ways of Knowing Avrom Fleishman, 2014-07-03 In this highly individual study Avrom Fleishman explores a wide range of literary references to human culture the culture of ideas facts and images Each critical essay in Fiction and the Ways of Knowing takes up for sustained analysis a major British novel of the nineteenth or the twentieth century The novels are analyzed in the light of social historical philosophical and other perspectives that can be grouped under the human sciences The diversity of critical contexts in these thirteen essays is organized by Avrom Fleishman's governing belief in the interrelations of literature and other ways of interpreting the world The underlying assumptions of this approach as explained in his introductory essay are that fiction is capable of encompassing even the most recondite facts and recalcitrant ideas that fiction though never a mirror of reality is linked to realities and takes part in the real and that a critical reading may be informed by scientific knowledge without reducing the literary work to a schematic formula Fleishman investigates the matters of fact and belief that make up the designated meanings the intellectual contexts and the speculative parallels in three types of novel Some of the novels discussed make it clear that their authors are informed on matters beyond the nonspecialist's range these essays help bridge this information gap Other fictional works are only to be grasped in an awareness of the cultural lore tacitly distributed in their own time a modern reader must make the effort to fathom their anachronisms And other novels can be found to open passageways that their authors can only have glimpsed intuitively these must be pursued with great caution but equal diligence The novels discussed include Little Dorrit The Way We Live Now Daniel Deronda The Return of the Native and The Magus Also examined are Wuthering Heights Vanity Fair Northanger Abbey To the Lighthouse Under Western Eyes Ulysses and A Passage to India Fiction and Social Reality Mariano Longo, 2016-03-09 In spite of their differing rhetorics and cognitive strategies sociology and literature are often concerned with the same objects social relationships action motivation social constraints and relationships for example

As such sociologists have always been fascinated with fictional literature This book reinvigorates the debate surrounding the utility of fiction as a sociological resource examining the distinction between the two forms of writing and exploring the views of early sociologists on the suitability of subjecting literary sources to sociological analysis Engaging with contemporary debates in this field the author explores the potential sociological use of literary fiction considering the role of literature as the exemplification of sociological concepts a non technical confirmation of theoretical insights and a form of empirical material used to confirm a set of theoretically oriented assumptions A fascinating exploration of the means by which the sociological eye can be sharpened by engagement with literary sources Fiction and Social Reality offers a set of methodological principles according to which literature can be examined sociologically As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and literary studies with interests in research methods and interdisciplinary approaches to scholarly research

The Dawn of Industrial Agriculture in Iowa E. Paul Durrenberger, 2021-11-15 In The Dawn of Industrial Agriculture in Iowa E Paul Durrenberger recounts the transformation of Iowa s family farms into today s agricultural industry through the lens of the lives and writings of Iowa novelist Paul Corey and poet Ruth Lechlitner This anthropological biography analyzes Corey s fiction Lechlitner s poetry and their professional and personal correspondence to offer a new perspective on an era 1925 1947 that saw the collapse and remaking of capitalism in the United States the rise of communism in the Soviet Union the rise and defeat of fascism around the world and the creation of a continuous warfare state in America Durrenberger tells the story that Corey aimed to record and preserve of the industrialization of Iowa s agriculture and the death of its family farms He analyzes Corey s regionalist focus on Iowa farming and regionalism s contemporaneous association in Europe with rising fascism He explores Corey s adoption of naturalism evident in his resistance to heroes and villains to plot structure and resolution and to moral judgment as well as his ethnographic tendency to focus on groups rather than individuals An unusual and wide ranging study The Dawn of Industrial Agriculture in Iowa offers important insight into the relationships among fiction individual lives and anthropological practice as well as into a pivotal period in American history

Paradox and Society Louis Schneider, The writings of Bernard Mandeville mark an important transition between enlightenment social philosophy and modern science Born in Holland in 1670 and educated as a physician Mandeville spent the greater part of his working life in England where he died in 1733 In some respects Mandeville can be compared to Voltaire Mandeville s junior by twenty four years Mandeville had the knack of making controversies volcanic and of arousing heated debate about any topic on which he chose to comment and he chose to comment on virtually everything He was especially¹ interested in social evolution morality and society prostitution and romantic love crime and its deterrence and in social aspects of religion His views on these and countless other topics cohere in his continual fascination with the consequences of social and economic actions that run counter to anticipations and intentions and in the paradoxical or ironic cast that such outcomes often have In Paradox and Society Louis Schneider is the first to offer a full consideration of Mandeville as a sociologist Schneider offers an intellectual and characterological portrait of Mandeville examining his writings and reactions to him over time Schneider goes on to review Mandeville's theory of human nature and explores his hotly contested notion of the paradox of private vices and public benefits that the arousal of desires is a necessary precondition for the stimulation of social and economic development Social action outside the marketplace and Mandeville's problematic theory of social evolution are next considered The volume ends with an examination of paradox irony and satire in society In this detailed analysis of one of the world's most controversial social critics Schneider shows us that Mandeville offers a vision of human society that is of enduring significance He challenges the reader to consider how that vision might operate in today's world Social
