Cosgrove Graham Edwards Frank Hunt I Was Only Nineteen other veterans of Vietnam Glenda Humes daughter of Capt Reginald Saunders peacemakers and an SAS trooper this compelling investigation by Gina Lennox is underpinned by the question where does family fit in a soldier's life Uncommon Ground Veronica Strang, 2020-12-22 What makes people care about the environment Why and how do different cultural groups value land in different ways With increasing international concern about green issues and the apparent failure of mechanistic solutions to complex problems Uncommon Ground provides a timely understanding of the cultural values that underpin human environmental relations Through a comparison of two very different groups the Aboriginal people and the white cattle farmers in Far North Queensland Uncommon Ground explores how the human environmental relationship is culturally constructed This highly topical study also examines the long term conflicts over land in Australia which have brought to the surface each group's environmental values The author considers how these values are acquired and the universal and cultural factors that lead to their development Major emphasis is put on the cultural forms that create and express environmental values for the Aborigines and the white pastoralists such as historical background land use and economic modes socio spatial organization language knowledge and methods of socialization oral and visual representation cosmological beliefs and systems of law This book is very accessible and should be widely used on anthropology environmental studies and geography courses Life, Camera, Action Mitchell Burns, 2024-09-04 It took ten years in the coal mines for Mitchell Burns to realise that no pay cheque is worth sacrificing your dreams Now he's making up for lost time Mitchell Burns never wanted to be a miner Growing up in a Queensland coal mining town with parents in the industry pursuing his passion for photography just didn't feel like an option So he went in the only direction he knew straight into the mines After a decade in a job he hated Mitch realised that he had put his dreams on hold for too long With no blueprint for success he turned away from mining to forge his own path in photography In a vulnerable moment he posted online about taking the leap the now viral video has inspired millions of people around the world not to give up on their goals These days hundreds of thousands of viewers follow Mitch as he travels Australia and abroad sharing his breathtaking landscape photographs and how he captures them His story is a compelling call to action for anyone who has ever longed to quit their day job and pursue their passion proving that some risks are well worth taking you just need to be brave enough to take the shot Life Camera Action is an inspiring story about choosing your own adventure and the beauty to be found in following your dreams Monte Carlo For Vagabonds R.A. Dalkey, When R.A. Dalkey travels cheap he thinks bigger than hostel dorms overnight trains and pasta with tomato sauce for every meal He'll roll out his sleeping bag in Madrid's red light district nap on the streets of Monaco and furtively string up his hammock on Swiss farms He'll spontaneously teach English in Laos in exchange for rice He'll thumb rides anywhere from Timor to the Orange Free State He'll try smiling a lot and see where it takes him Most of the time it's somewhere good As this collection of stories will reveal it doesn't always go smoothly Indonesian bush fires chase him from his campsite His shoes freeze solid in Siberia He gets head butted by an Albanian villager He s shaken by earthquakes and terrified by witching hour excavations in Andorran valleys And incompetent as ever with ropes his hammock has a habit of falling down in the middle of the night with him in it Yet he wouldn t have it any other way travelling Dalkey style delivers the richest of experiences And as he shares the adventures few of us would brave you ll pick up gems about this crazy planet Do you know which head of state was an Olympic bobsleigh competitor Or how long your unattended bag will go untouched in Japan Who s eating all the ice cream in Pyongyang And how do cats jump in Swedish Like that uncle with the rose tinted specs and a grumpy anarchist student rolled into one Dalkey turns up his nose at travel insurance and shows there s more than one way to see a world that always steers us to play it safe

The Road to Innamincka R.A. Dalkey, When a 10 year old R A Dalkey decided he was going to become an Outback truck driver the poor Australia besotted boy had no idea what he was getting into He d been born on the wrong continent for a start And even if he could make it out of Africa one day where was an Australian work visa to come from Or for that matter a licence to drive 53 metre trucks on red desert roads A sensible adult would have filed that dream away as a juvenile fantasy and gotten on with life Especially after taking five attempts to get the most basic of car licences But R A Dalkey never claimed to be a sensible adult did he Join the author as he pursues the ultimate whimsical travel quest From that careless moment of childhood inspiration this true account will take you to small town South Africa the ugly side of Cape Town the claustrophobic sprawl of Greater London and New Zealand s sleepy Waikato And then on to the Holy Grail Australia Dalkey digs deep into this puzzling generous nation as he travels to every one of the mainland states He explores Australia s quirky history and its modern cities from seductive Sydney to bad ass Brisbane He rides trains across the Nullarbor Plain and watches cricket everywhere But all this is merely the backdrop to his dogged pursuit of that decades old mission driving heavy loads to tiny rural specks deep in the Outback
