Renewing Americas Cities:

Renewing America's Cities Thomas Frank Johnson, James R. Morris, Joseph G. Butts, 1973-10-09 Renewing America's Cities Thomas Frank Johnson (et al), 1962 Saving America's Cities Lizabeth Cohen, 2019-10-01 An incisive treatment of the entire urban planning world in America in the last half of the 20th century Alan Ehrenhalt The New York Times In twenty first century America some cities are flourishing and others are struggling but they all must contend with deteriorating infrastructure economic inequality and unaffordable housing Cities have limited tools to address these problems and many must rely on the private market to support the public good It wasn't always this way For almost three decades after World War II even as national policies promoted suburban sprawl the federal government underwrote renewal efforts for cities that had suffered during the Great Depression and the war and were now bleeding residents into the suburbs In Saving America's Cities Lizabeth Cohen follows the career of Edward J. Logue A Yale trained lawyer rival of Robert Moses and sometime critic of Jane Jacobs Logue saw renewing cities as an extension of the liberal New Deal He worked to revive a declining New Haven became the architect of the New Boston of the 1960s and later led New York State's Urban Development Corporation which built entire new towns including Roosevelt Island in New York City Logue's era of urban renewal has a complicated legacy Neighborhoods were demolished and residents dislocated but there were also genuine successes and progressive goals Saving America's Cities is a dramatic story of heartbreak and destruction but also of human idealism and resourcefulness opening up possibilities for our own time Engrossing The Wall Street Journal Cohen sketches Logue vividly illuminating his forcefulness his passion his masculine confidence The Nation A complex portrait The Boston Globe An essential read Library Journal starred review Renewing America's Cities J. W. Follin, 1956 Renewing America's cities, 1962 A Report on the State of America's Communities Henry Cisneros, United States. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 1996 Urban Renewal National Housing Center (U.S.). Library, 1965 American Hometown Renewal Gary Mattson, 2016-09-13 Before the interstates Main Street America was the small town's commercial spine and served as the linchpin for community social solidarity Yet during the past three decades a series of economic downturns has left many of the great small cities barely viable American Hometown Renewal is the first book to combine administrative budgetary and economic analysis to examine the economic and fiscal plight currently facing America's small towns Featuring a blend of theory applications and case studies it provides a comprehensive single source textbook covering the key issues facing small town officials in today's uncertain economy Written by a former public manager university professor and consultant to numerous small towns in the Heartland this book demonstrates the ways in which contemporary small towns throughout the nation are facing economic challenges brought about by the financial shocks that began in 2008 Each chapter explores a theme related to small town revival and provides a related tool or technique to enable small town officials to meet the challenges of the 21st Century Encouraging local small town officials to look at the economic orbit of communities in a similar manner as a town's budget or a family's personal wealth examining its specific competitive advantages in terms of relative assets to those of competing communities this book provides the reader with step by step instructions on how to conduct an asset inventory and apply key asset tools to devise a strategy for overcoming the challenges and constraints imposed upon spatially fixed communities American Hometown Renewal is an essential primer for students studying city management economic community development and city planning and will be a trusted handbook for city managers geographers city planners urban or rural sociologists political scientists and regional microeconomists
