Catalogue Raisonné: Oil paintings and objects, 1931-1948 René Magritte,1992 The Conference of the Tongues Theo Hermans,2014-06-03 The Conference of the Tongues offers a series of startling reflections on fundamental questions of translation It throws new light on familiar problems and opens up some radically different avenues of thought It engages with value conflicts in translation and the social accountability of translators and turns the old issue of equivalence inside out Drawing on a wealth of contemporary and historical examples the book teases out the translator s subject position in translations makes notions of intertextuality and irony serviceable for translation studies tries to think translation without transformation and uses a controversial sociological model to cast a cold eye on the entire world of translating This is a highly interdisciplinary study that remains aware of the importance of theoretical paradigms as it brings concepts from international law social systems theory and even theology to bear on translation Self reference is a recurrent theme The book invites us to read translations for what they can tell us about translating and about translators own perceptions of their role The argument throughout is for more self reflexive translation studies The Art Book Tradition in Twentieth-Century

Europe Kathryn Brown,2017-07-05 Investigating the complex history of visual art s engagement with literature this collection demonstrates that the art of the book is a fully interdisciplinary and distinctly modern form The essays in the collection develop new critical approaches to the analysis of twentieth century bookworks and explore ways in which European writers and painters challenged the boundary between visual and linguistic expression in the content production and physical form of books The Art Book Tradition in Twentieth Century Europe offers a detailed examination of word image relations in forms ranging from the livre d artiste to personal diaries and almanacs It analyzes innovative attempts to challenge familiar hierarchies between texts and images to fuse different expressive media and to reconceptualize traditional notions of ekphrasis Giving consideration to the material qualities of books the works discussed in this collection also test and celebrate the act of reading while locating it in the context of other sensory experiences Essays examine works by Dufy Matisse Beckett Kandinsky Braque and Ponge among other European artists and writers active during the twentieth century

Text/Image Mosaics in French Culture Laurence Grove, 2017-03-02 This study compares text image interaction as manifested in emblem books and related forms and the modern bande dessinée or French language comic strip It moves beyond the issue of defining the emblematic genre to examine the ways in which emblems and their modern counterparts interact with the surrounding culture and what they disclose about that culture Drawing largely on primary material from the Bibliothèque nationale de France and from Glasgow University Library's Stirling Maxwell Collection of emblem literature Laurence Grove builds on the ideas of Marshall McLuhan Elizabeth Eisenstein and more recently Neil Rhodes and Jonathan Sawday Divided into four sections Theoretics Production Thematics and Reception Text Image Mosaics in French Culture broaches topics such as theoretical approaches past and present to text image forms the question of narrative within the scope of text image creations and the reuse of visual iconography for diametrically opposed political or religious purposes The author argues that despite the gap in time between the advent of emblems and that of comic strips the two forms are analogous in that both are the products of a parallel mentality The mindsets of the periods that popularised these forms have certain common features related to repeated social conditions rather than to the pure evolution over time Grove s analysis and historical contextualisation of that mentality provide insight into our own popular culture forms not only the comic strip but also other hybrid media such as advertising and the Internet His juxtaposition of emblems and the bande dessin e increases our understanding of all such combinations of picture and text
