Report Andrea Fraser:

Museums and Wealth Nizan Shaked, 2022-01-13 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 A critical analysis of contemporary art collections and the value form this book shows why the nonprofit system is unfit to administer our common collections and offers solutions for diversity reform and redistributive restructuring In the United States institutions administered by the nonprofit system have an ambiguous status as they are neither entirely private nor fully public Among nonprofits the museum is unique as it is the only institution where trustees tend to collect the same objects they hold in public trust on behalf of the nation if not humanity The public serves as alibi for establishing the symbolic value of art which sustains its monetary value and its markets This structure allows for wealthy individuals at the helm to gain financial benefits from and ideological control over what is at its core purpose a public system The dramatic growth of the art market and the development of financial tools based on art collateral loans exacerbate the contradiction between the needs of museum leadership versus that of the public Indeed a history of private support in the US is a history of racist discrimination and the common collections reflect this fact A history of how private collections were turned public gives context Since the late Renaissance private collections legitimized the prince's right to rule and later with the great revolutions display consolidated national identity But the rise of the American museum reversed this and re privatized the public collection A materialist description of the museum as a model institution of the liberal nation state reveals constellations of imperialist social relations

Public History in Global Perspective Georgina Laragy, Richard Legay, Ciaran O'Neill, Hannah K. Smyth, 2025-07-21 Where should public history sit within the matrix of global international trans national and more local histories Since its emergence in the 1970s Public History has typically been read as community oriented and more local in its applications The academic field in particular has developed along national lines and indeed we see in the many monographs edited books and journals that have emerged a distinct tendency to consider public history as understandable mostly in its relation to the nation state and its attendant mythologies The meta narratives that public history pushes against are the building blocks of national histories political military and heroic histories Conceiving of a global public history seems to have more radical potential than an international public history which arguably simply collects these national histories What would a global public history look like and how can it disrupt the field if interpreted radically This book will centre the work of scholars and professionals in the field of Public History It will offer novel reflections on postgraduate Public History learning work experience and application from recent graduates and partnered institutions A mix of theory and practice traditional and creative methodologies it demonstrates the value of integrating work experience practitioner workshops and close collaboration in Public History training

Visual Worlds John R Hall, Blake Stimson, Lisa Tamiris Becker, 2006-02-01 As many observers have noted the world is becoming increasingly visually mediated with the rise of computers and the internet being central factors in the emergence of new tools and conventions Exploring the social structure of visuality this volume contains a collection of essays by internationally renowned artists and scholars from a variety of fields including art history literary theory and criticism cultural studies film and television studies intellectual history and sociology It was conceived to address a bold query how is our experience and understanding of vision and visual form changing under pressure from the various social economic and cultural factors that are linked under the term globalization The essays overlap in their considerations of the tensions between cultures and worlds political life everyday social experience and war The resulting conversation that develops between the chapters touches on points from many visual worlds and provides a unique opportunity for considering the changing character of visual experience today This book will attract readers from a wide range of academic disciplines and will especially be valuable as a textbook for graduate and undergraduate courses in visual culture and cultural studies

Political Animals Robert Garner, 2016-07-27 In this thorough yet accessible book Robert Garner explores the character of animal protection policy making in Britain and the United States and the opportunities open to animal protection movements In showing how the political system in both countries has been responsive to the growing demands for reforms in the way animals are treated he argues that there is a viable reformist strategy for the animal protection movement short of the adoption of animal rights objectives Much less protection is afforded to animals in the United States however largely as a consequence of the particular policy networks within which animal welfare decisions are made

Vanguardia Marc James Léger, 2019-01-17 The avant garde is dead or so the story goes for many leftists and capitalists alike But in an era of neoliberal austerity neocolonial militarism and ecological crisis this postmodern view seems increasingly outmoded Rejecting end of ideology post politics Vanguardia delves into the changing praxis of socially engaged art and theory in the age of the Capitalocene Covering the major events of the last decade from anti globalisation protests Occupy Wall Street the Maple Spring Strike Debt and the Anthropocene to the Black Lives Matter and MeToo campaigns Vanguardia puts forward a radical leftist commitment to the revolutionary consciousness of avant garde art and politics

Performing Human Rights Anika Marschall, 2023-08-04 This book enhances critical perspectives on human rights through the lens of performance studies and argues that contemporary artistic interventions can contribute to our understanding of human rights as a critical and embodied doing This study is situated in the contemporary discourse of asylum and political art practices It argues for the need to reimagine human rights as performative and embodied forms of recognition and practical honouring of our shared vulnerability and co dependency It contributes to the debate of theatre and migration by understanding that contemporary asylum issues are complex and context specific and that they do not only pertain to the refugee migrant asylum seeker or stateless person but also to privileged constituencies institutional structures forms of organisation and assembly The book presents a unique mixed methods approach that focuses equally on performance analyses and on political philosophy critical legal studies and art history and thus speaks to a range of politically interested scholars in all four fields Abstraction &

Economy Eva Maria Stadler,Jenni Tischer,2024-04-22 Opposing a regime of accumulation and abstraction This anthology explores the tension between abstraction and economics from the perspectives of art art theory art history as well as law sociology philosophy and economics It poses questions about the current challenges of a global capitalist economy with claims to expansive growth in relation to aesthetics technology and democracy The relationship between abstraction and economics is discussed in a series of theoretical and artistic contributions The main focus is on the role of art in mediating between the concrete and the abstract on formalist approaches to art theory and on the social and economic cues that help us trace the aesthetic regime of capitalism Ultimately this book asks how can artistic aesthetic practices counteract the regime of accumulation and abstraction The visual arts in a socioeconomic context Reflecting on the relationship between abstraction and economics from capitalist critical decolonial ecological and queer feminist perspectives Contributions by Brenna Bhandar Christina von Braun Sabeth Buchmann Denise Ferreira da Silva Sven L tticken R H Quaytman Marina Vishmidt and others Look inside The Performance Apparatus Branislav Jakovljevic,2025-04-15 The publication of Louis Althusser s 1969 article Ideology and Ideological State Apparatuses made a deep impact on cultural studies and was instrumental in the formation of the apparatus theory in film studies While contemporaneous with the emergence of performance art this article and the questions of ideology and apparatus it raises barely registered in the field of performance studies which was then in its formative phase Jakovljevi takes this absence of Althusser s apparatus theory from performance studies as an indicator of the ideological position of the field at the moment of its emergence arguing that while theories of ideology played no major role in early performance studies performance art itself offered a number of incisive critiques of ideology Jakovljevi looks at permutations of the apparatus by investigating the work of theorists such as Louis Althusser Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze and Judith Butler and engagements with the apparatus by a number of artists such as Amiri Baraka Philippe Thomas New York Art Language Terry Fox Every house has a door Clive Robertson and Cassils Jakovljevi suggests that the centrality of behavior in early performance theory is important for the understanding of contemporary society which is dominated by surveillance capitalism If ideology is lodged in behaviors and if surveillance capitalism thrives on the monetization of the behavioral surplus then performance theory can make significant contributions to our understanding of the moment in which we live and the future we are facing The Performance Apparatus argues for the importance of continuing attention to the question of ideology in contemporary neoliberal order

Activism Afonso Dias Ramos, Tom Snow, 2023-12-19 An edited collection that addresses the vital intersection of contemporary art and activism in this watershed cultural moment Activism is a critical point of contention for institutions and genealogies of contemporary art around the world Yet artists have consistently engaged in activist discourse lending their skills to social movements and regularly participating in civil and social rights campaigns while also boycotting cultural institutions and exerting significant pressure on them This timely volume edited by Tom Snow and Afonso Ramos addresses an extraordinary moment in debates over the institutional frameworks and networks of art including large scale direct actions as well as a radical rethinking of art venues and urban spaces according to racial class or gender based disparities including demonstrations against the extractive and exploitative practices of neoliberal accumulation and climate catastrophe From ACT UP and its affiliate groups since the dawn of the AIDS crisis to the counter spectacle and street theatrics of the so called Arab Spring and Occupy to ongoing protest movements such as Black Lives Matter Rhodes Must Fall and Decolonize This Place activist aesthetics has proven increasingly difficult to define under traditional classifications Resurgent campaigns for decolonial reckoning ecological justice gender equality indigenous rights and antiracist pedagogies indicate that the role of activism in contemporary art practice urges a critical reassessment One pressing question is whether contemporary art's most radical politics now takes place outside against or in spite of conventional sites of display such as museums biennials and galleries Artists surveyed include ACT UP Basel Abbas Ruanne Abou Rahme Allora Calzadilla Tania Bruguera Black Audio Film Collective Chto Delat Andrea Fraser Nan Goldin Sanja Ivekovi Gulf Labor Amar Kanwar Leslie Labowitz Liberate Tate Sethembile Msezane Zanele Muholi Jan Nikolai Nelles Nora Al Badri Decolonize This Place Michael Rakowitz Oliver Ressler Writers include Dave Beech Judith Butler Amílcar Cabral Elias Canetti Douglas Crimp Jodi Dean Gilles Deleuze T J Demos Nina Dubrovsky Sreyya Evren Catherine Flood Matthew Fuller David Graeber Gavin Grindon Félix Guattari Brian Holmes Carrie Lambert Beatty Lucy Lippard Yates McKee MTL Collective Gregory Sholette Françoise Vergès Peter Weiss Eyal Weizman
