Report from a Chinese Village Jan Myrdal, 1981-02 Return to a Chinese Village Jan Myrdal, 1984 A Century of Change in a Chinese Village Lin Juren, Xie Yuxi, 2018-05-04 Over the last half century China has evolved from a poor rural country to a geopolitical powerhouse Rapid urbanization has been at the heart of that transformation and as migrant laborers have left their villages what has become of the rural communities that were once the center of economic social and cultural life And how do contemporary Chinese scholars understand those changes These are the questions that this compelling book answers Lengshuigou village located near the Shandong provincial capital of Jinan was first studied by Japanese social scientists in the early 1940s and then again in the 1980s and 1990s Building on these rich surveys this book traces changes from the early twentieth century to the present day in family and lineage social stratification personal networks annual and life cycle rituals village politics and elite formation Drawing on their own large scale survey of contemporary village households the authors analyze the physical and institutional changes that have altered the community as well as the shifts in interpersonal relations and attitudes that have upended centuries old systems of patriarchy and generational order This important book presents for the first time in English analysis by Chinese sociologists on the radical transformation of Chinese rural society Seeing History: Public History in China LI Na, 2023-11-06 When public history was imported from the United States to China around the turn of the twenty first century it was introduced as a sub field within history and has developed along that path ever since Professional historians in China even some forward looking ones see public history as merely presenting a change in the patterns of participation in history making This book offers a sharply different view It contends essentially that public history represents more than a research domain within history or within any existing discipline nor does it fit into any established narratives but rather a fundamental change of the entire process of history making in China In this process the public is prosuming history Public history makes obsolete the old structure for building and acquiring historical knowledge it challenges the old assumptions supersedes the rigid academic hierarchy and stirs the imaginations of the multitudes With an assemblage of case studies this work makes a case for a system view of public history making or public history ing and launches a concept complex public history i e public history ing as complex adaptive systems Problems of Communism , 1966 Touch and Go Studs Terkel, 2008-10-01 This memoir by the oral historian and Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Good War is a masterpiece about a life which itself is a sort of masterpiece Oliver Sacks Chosen as a Best Book of the Year in 2007 by the Chicago Tribune Publishers Weekly and Playboy Studs Terkel s memoir Touch and Go is history from a highly personal point of view by one who has helped make it Kirkus Reviews Terkel takes us through his childhood and into his early experiences as a law student during the Depression and later as an actor on both radio and the stage offering a brilliant and often hilarious portrait of Chicago in the 1920s and 30s Describing his beginnings as a disc jockey after World War II his involvement with progressive politics during the McCarthy era as well as his career as an interviewer and oral historian Touch and Go is a testament to Terkel's generosity of spirit sense of social justice and commitment to capture on his ever present tape recorder the voices of those who otherwise would not be heard The New York Times Book Review It is a brilliant lifetime achievement from the man the Washington Post has called the most distinguished oral historian of our time The master storyteller tells his own story as no one else can irresistibly Garry Wills

The End of Concern Fabio Lanza,2017-08-31 In 1968 a cohort of politically engaged young academics established the Committee of Concerned Asian Scholars CCAS Critical of the field of Asian studies and its complicity with the United States policies in Vietnam the CCAS mounted a sweeping attack on the field's academic political and financial structures While the CCAS included scholars of Japan Korea and South and Southeast Asia the committee focused on Maoist China as it offered the possibility of an alternative politics and the transformation of the meaning of labor and the production of knowledge In The End of Concern Fabio Lanza traces the complete history of the CCAS outlining how its members worked to merge their politics and activism with their scholarship Lanza's story exceeds the intellectual history and legacy of the CCAS however he narrates a moment of transition in Cold War politics and how Maoist China influenced activists and intellectuals around the world becoming a central element in the political upheaval of the long 1960s Americans and Chinese Francis L. People's Republic of China PRC As a neutral country and as the home base for many international organisations Switzerland represented a strategic centre for the spread of Maoism throughout the world Focusing on cultural diplomacy and questioning the notion of soft power this book explores how the PRC developed its influence and its prestige abroad through its Embassy in Bern the most important in Western Europe The book also discusses how China's approach in Switzerland bypassing traditional diplomatic structures and relying on contacts with individual people foreign friends was then used and continues to be used in many other countries including the United States France and Japan Communist China: a Strategic Survey Army Library (U.S.),1966 China in Revolution Mark Selden,2016-09-16 Originally published in the early 1970s The Yanan Way in Revolutionary China has proved to be one of the most significant and enduring books published in the field In this new critical edition of that seminal work Mark Selden revisits the central themes therein and reconsiders them in light of major new theoretical and documentary understandings of the Chinese communist revolution Chicago by the Book Caxton Club,2018-11-20 Despite its rough and tumble image Chicago has long been identified as a city where books take center stage In fact a volume by A J Liebling gave the Second City its nickname Upton Sinclair's The Jungle arose from the midwestern capital's most infamous industry The great Chicago Fire led to the founding of the Chicago Public Library The city has fostered writers such as Nelson Algren Saul Bellow and Gwendolyn Brooks Chicago's literary magazines The Little Review and Poetry introduced the world to Eliot Hemingway Joyce and Pound The city's robust commercial printing industry supported a flourishing culture of the book With this beautifully produced collection Chicago's rich literary tradition finally gets its due Chicago by the Book profiles 101 landmark publications about Chicago from the past 170 years that have helped define the city and its image Each title carefully selected by the Caxton Club a venerable Chicago bibliophilic organization is the focus of an illustrated essay by a leading scholar writer or bibliophile Arranged chronologically to show the history of both the city and its books the essays can be read in order from Mrs John H Kinzie's 1844 Narrative of the Massacre of Chicago to Sara Paretsky's 2015 crime novel Brush Back Or one can dip in and out savoring reflections on the arts sports crime race relations urban planning politics and even Mrs O Leary's legendary cow The selections do not shy from the underside of the city recognizing that its grit and graft have as much a place in the written imagination as soaring odes and boosterism As Neil Harris observes in his introduction Even when Chicagoans celebrate their hearth and home they do so while acknowledging deep seated flaws At the same time this collection heartily reminds us all of what makes Chicago as Norman Mailer called it the great American city With essays from among others Ira Berkow Thomas Dyja Ann Durkin Keating Alex Kotlowitz Toni Preckwinkle Frank Rich Don Share Carl Smith Regina Taylor Garry Wills and William Julius Wilson and featuring works by Saul Bellow Gwendolyn Brooks Sandra Cisneros Clarence Darrow Erik Larson David Mamet Studs Terkel Ida B Wells Barnett Frank Lloyd Wright and many more Newhouse Thomas Maier,1997 Newhouse is the first full scale biography of the turbulent life and business career of Samuel I Newhouse Jr who could arguably be described as the most powerful private citizen in America Controlling a fortune estimated to be in excess of thirteen billion dollars Si and his brother Donald are richer than the Queen of England or Bill Gates or Ross Perot or any of the Kennedys Rockefellers or Hearsts But Newhouse is not primarily about the accumulation of money by a family that two generations ago was literally impoverished Rather it is a book about power Aus Einem Unbekannten Zentrum, Zu Einer Nicht Erkennbaren Grenze Julie A. Reahard,1997 In an attempt to discover the one idea with respect to which Goethe claimed he had worked while writing Die Wahlverwandtschaften taking my cue from Goethe himself I have united the investigational techniques of hermeneutics and complexity or chaos theory and brought them to bear on the structure of several of the mirroring events in the text The overwhelming conclusion of this author is that like those investigating chaos in nature literary theorists must turn to comprehensive approaches if they wish to treat seriously the structure of texts as works which flow from nature the nature of the human mind Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature Poul Houe,Sven Hakon Rossel,1997 Documentary literature became an international phenomenon on the cultural and political scene in the 1960s and 1970s From the American New Journalism in works by such writers as Norman Mailer and Tom Wolfe to the German Industriereportagen by G nther Wallraff and others documentarism presented a variety of controversial interplays between facts and fiction labeled as faction fables of fact or the like Scandinavian literature made important and unique contributions to this international movement and Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is the first comprehensive volume ever published on the historical significance and future implications of these Nordic dimensions of documentarism and their international context The volume is centered on Swedish documentary literature in the 1960s and 1970s and on such major writers as Per Olov Enquist Sven Lindqvist Sara Lidman and Per Olov Sundman but the powerful voices of Danish writer Thorkild Hansen and Norwegian novelist Dag Solstad are also heard in its critical concert The diversity of Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is further enhanced by surveys and analyses of the historical background for more recent works and activities and by theoretical inquiries into the epistemological status of documentarism its theoretical narrative and theatrical devices its predominant genres and links to other modes of mass communication and its political affiliations and implications For readers already familiar with its subject matter Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature offers an opportunity to revisit and recontextualize a crucial moment in their recent cultural past For readers who have yet to be exposed to documentary works of fiction the volume presents a timely theoretical historical and critical introduction to the key problematics and potentials of their novel field of interest Whether viewed as part of the past or part of the present documentarism remains an intellectual challenge which this volume is aimed at addressing Documentarism in Scandinavian Literature is edited by two Scandinavian scholars living abroad and its essays are written by senior and junior scholars and critics from Scandinavia Europe and America an interview with Per Olov Enquist and an autobio graphical piece by Sven Lindqvist complete the volume
