Reported Sightings Art Chronicles 1957 1987:

Reported Sightings John Ashbery, 1989 The collected art criticism of John Ashbery John Ashbery and Anglo-American Exchange Oli Hazzard, 2018-06-07 In 1966 John Ashbery wrote The English language is constantly trying to stave off invasion by the American language it lives in a state of alert which is reflected to some degree in English poetry This book shows how the work of a major post war American poet has been centrally concerned with questions of national identity and intercultural poetic exchange by reading crucial episodes in Ashbery s oeuvre in the context of an other tradition of modern English poets he himself has defined This line runs from the editor of Ashbery s recent Collected Poems Mark Ford through Lee Harwood in the late 1960s F T Prince in the 1950s to chronologically the first and therefore most important influence on his own work W H Auden Through detailed close readings of the poetry of Ashbery and these English poets original interviews and extensive archival research a new account of Ashbery s aesthetic and a significant re mapping of post war English poetry is presented The biographical slant of the book is highly significant as it reads these writers poetry and correspondence together for the first time suggesting how major poetic innovations arose from specific social contexts from the particulars of relations between poets and also from a broader climate of Anglo American exchange as registered by each poet The book s presentation of the process of poetic influence is attentive to actual exchanges between contemporaries as evidenced in correspondence as opposed to speculative relationships with dominant figures and as such represents a departure from many other studies of Ashbery s work Key themes include Englishness as a national imaginary the concept of the minor reciprocal influence and the poetry of coteries The result is that both Ashbery himself and the landscape of post war English poetry are presented in significantly new lights New Art City Jed Perl, 2009-06-03 In this landmark work Jed Perl captures the excitement of a generation of legendary artists Jackson Pollack Joseph Cornell Robert Rauschenberg and Ellsworth Kelly among them who came to New York mingled in its lofts and bars and revolutionized American art In a continuously arresting narrative Perl also portrays such less well known figures as the galvanic teacher Hans Hofmann the lyric expressionist Joan Mitchell and the adventuresome realist Fairfield Porter as well the writers critics and patrons who rounded out the artists world Brilliantly describing the intellectual crosscurrents of the time as well as the genius of dozens of artists New Art City is indispensable for lovers of modern art and culture In Memory of My Feelings Russell Ferguson, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1999-01-01 In Memory of My Feelings Frank O Hara and American Art is a reexamination of the relationship between art and poetry at a crucial moment in American art It also offers new insights into the charismatic figure of Frank O Hara and his world and interests which included art music theater dance film and mass culture American Pop Art in France Liam Considine, 2019-10-28 Pop art was essential to the Americanization of global art in the 1960s yet it engendered resistance and adaptation abroad in equal measure especially in Paris From the end of the Algerian War of Independence and the opening of Ileana Sonnabend s gallery for American Pop art in Paris in 1962 to the silkscreen poster workshops of May 68 this book examines critical adaptations of Pop motifs and pictorial devices across French painting graphic design cinema and protest aesthetics Liam Considine argues that the transatlantic dispersion of Pop art gave rise to a new politics of the image that challenged Americanization and prefigured the critiques and contradictions of May 68

The American Landscape in the Poetry of Frost, Bishop, and Ashbery
M. MacArthur, 2008-08-04 Robert Frost Elizabeth Bishop and John Ashbery stand out among major American poets all three shaped the direction and pushed the boundaries of contemporary poetry on an international scale Drawing on biography cultural history and original archival research MacArthur shows us that these distinctive poets share one surprisingly central trope in their oeuvres the Romantic scene of the abandoned house This book scrutinizes the popular notion of Frost as a deeply rooted New Englander demonstrates that Frost had an underestimated influence on Bishop whose preoccupation with houses and dwelling is the obverse of her obsession with travel and questions dominant anti biographical readings of Ashbery as an urban identified poet As she reads poems that evoke particular landscapes and houses lost and abandoned by these poets MacArthur also sketches relevant cultural trends including patterns of rural de settlement the transformation of rural economies from agriculture to tourism and modern American s increasing mobility and rootlessness

Three Kinds of Motion Riley Hanick,2015-03-23 A freewheeling journey through midcentury America as art literature and the interstate highway system intersect In 1943 Peggy Guggenheim commissioned a mural from Jackson Pollock to hang in the entryway of her Manhattan townhouse It was the largest Pollock canvas she would ever own and four years later she gave it to a small Midwestern institution with no place to put it When the original scroll of On the Road goes on tour across the country it lands at the same Iowa museum housing Peggy's Pollock revitalizing Riley Hanick's adolescent fascination with the author Alongside these two narrative threads Hanick revisits Dwight D Eisenhower's quest to build America's first interstate highway system When catastrophic rains flood the Iowa highways they also threaten the museum and its precious mural In Three Kinds of Motion his razor sharp funny and intensely vulnerable book length essay Hanick moves deftly between his three subjects and delivers a story with breathtaking ingenuity He gravitates toward the unexpected and the poignant We see Eisenhower painting Kerouac confined to a naval hospital after running naked across a drill field and Pollock babysitting for the offspring of his mentor Thomas Hart Benton Hanick creates arresting juxtapositions in the mode of such kindred innovative essayists as John D Agata Ander Monson and Lia Purpura Booklist Like a great conversationalist Hanick paints a generous canvas and I rode the length of this powerful book much like I first experienced the American interstate songs on the stereo windows down and the bittersweet sense that youth is fleeting Three Kinds of Motion holds open a wild and beautiful journey not to be missed Thalia Field Selected Prose John Ashbery, 2005 Fifty years of writing on literature film and art by one of the most influential poets and critics of our time Remaining in Light John Taggart, 1993-01-01 This is the first sustained critical examination of the work of Edward Hopper a major twentieth century American painter It is a sequence of meditations on his painting A Woman in the Sun Each meditation informed by Derrida's conception of the supplement is about both the painting and about the nature of the reading process The Academic Avant-Garde Kimberly Quiogue Andrews, 2023-01-10 The surprising story of the relationship between experimental poetry and literary studies In The Academic Avant Garde Kimberly Quiogue Andrews makes a provocative case for the radical poetic possibilities of the work of literary scholarship and lays out a foundational theory of literary production in the context of the university In her examination of the cross pollination between the analytic humanities and the craft of poetry writing Andrews tells a bold story about some of today's most innovative literary works This pathbreaking intervention into contemporary American literature and higher education demonstrates that experimental poetry not only reflects nuanced concern about creative writing as a discipline but also uses the critical techniques of scholarship as a cornerstone of poetic practice Structured around the concepts of academic labor such as teaching and methodological work such as theorizing the book traces these practices in the works of authors ranging from Claudia Rankine to John Ashbery providing fresh readings of some of our era's most celebrated and difficult poets
