Japanese War Crimes and Related Topics: A Guide to Records at the National Archives United States. National Archives and Records Administration, 200? This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Eisenhower Archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions. Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination.

Religious Violence Today Michael Jerryson, 2020-07-15 Through sections containing overview essays and reference entries related to particular religions this resource explores the rise of religious violence, hate crime and persecution around the world. Religious violence and persecution have been growing steadily both within the United States and around the world. Drawing on the expertise of a wide range of scholars, this current and comprehensive reference helps readers understand the persecution of members of particular faiths as well as violence committed by members of those faiths. In doing so, it promotes a greater understanding of the role of religion in global politics, domestic and international terrorism and religious bigotry. The book contains sections on particular religious traditions from around the world. Each section begins with an overview essay surveying violence related to that particular religion, whether committed by or against members of that faith. Reference entries in each section then provide objective, fundamental information about particular topics related to violence and the religion discussed. The entries provide cross references and suggestions for further reading, and the work closes with a bibliography of resources for further study.

Red Star over the Pacific, Second Edition Toshi Yoshihara, James Holmes, 2018-12-15 Combining a close knowledge of Asia and an ability to tap Chinese language sources with naval combat experience and expertise in sea power theory, the authors assess how the rise of Chinese sea power will affect U.S. maritime strategy in Asia. They argue that China has laid the groundwork for a sustained challenge to American primacy in maritime Asia, and to defend this hypothesis they look back to Alfred Thayer Mahan's sea power theories, now popular with the Chinese. The book considers how strategic thought about the sea shapes Beijing's deliberations and compares China's geostrategic predicament to that of the Kaiser's Germany a century ago. It examines the Chinese navy's operational concepts, tactics and capabilities and appraises China's missile force. The authors conclude that China now presents a challenge to America's strategic position of such magnitude that Washington must compete in earnest.

China's Influence and the Center-periphery Tug of War in Hong Kong, Taiwan and Indo-Pacific Brian C. H. Fong, Jieh-min Wu, Andrew J. Nathan, 2020-12-30 Bringing together a team of cutting edge researchers based in Hong Kong, Taiwan and Indo-Pacific countries, this book focuses on the tug of war between China's influence and forces of resistance in Hong Kong, Taiwan and selected countries in its surrounding jurisdictions. China's influence has met growing defiance from citizens in Hong Kong and Taiwan who fear the extinction of their valued local identities. However, the book shows that resistance to China's influence is a global phenomenon, varying in motivation and intensity from region to region and country to country, depending on the forms of China's influence and the balances of forces in each society. The book also advances a concentric center-periphery framework for comparing different forms of extra-jurisdictional Chinese influence mechanisms, ranging from economic, military and diplomatic influences to united front operations. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of comparative politics international relations geopolitics Chinese politics Hong Kong China relations Taiwan and Asian politics      Minerals Yearbook, 2008, V. 3, Area Reports, International, Asia and the Pacific ,2010-10-25 NOTE NO FURTHER DISCOUNT FOR THIS PRINT PRODUCT OVERSTOCK SALE Significantly reduced list price Provides an annual review of mineral production and trade and of mineral related government and industry developments in Asia and the Pacific Each report includes sections on government policies and programs environmental issues trade and production data industry structure and ownership commodity sector developments infrastructure and a summary outlook American citizens investors commodity traders business executives and studnets pursuing coursework in statistics and comparative governments may be interested in this volume Related products Social Security Programs Throughout the World Asia and the Pacific 2012 can be found here <https://bookstore.gpo.gov/products/sku/053-070-00033-7> Other print volumes in theMinerals Yearbook series collection can be found here https://bookstore.gpo.gov/catalog/science/technology/minerals/metals/minerals\_yearbook
