Representations Intersections Of Culture And Power:

(Mis)representations Fernando Galván, Julio Cañero Serrano, José Santiago Fernández Vázquez, 2003 This book brings together several essays presented at the Seventh International Seminar on Culture and Power held at the University of Alcalá in October 2001 The conference set out to study the ways in which the notions of representation and misrepresentation are related to the mis uses of power in the English speaking world Topics covered in the essays include the relationship between anthropology and literature textual depictions of the city and the representation of the post colonial world The contributors also explore the validity of the categories of class gender and race in a literary cultural and educational context The Routledge Handbook of Environmental Justice Ryan Holifield, Jayajit Chakraborty, Gordon Walker, 2017-09-14 The Routledge Handbook of Environmental Justice presents an extensive and cutting edge introduction to the diverse rapidly growing body of research on pressing issues of environmental justice and injustice With wide ranging discussion of current debates controversies and questions in the history theory and methods of environmental justice research contributed by over 90 leading social scientists natural scientists humanists and scholars from professional disciplines from six continents it is an essential resource both for newcomers to this research and for experienced scholars and practitioners The chapters of this volume examine the roots of environmental justice activism lay out and assess key theories and approaches and consider the many different substantive issues that have been the subject of activism empirical research and policy development throughout the world The Handbook features critical reviews of quantitative qualitative and mixed methodological approaches and explicitly addresses interdisciplinarity transdisciplinarity and engaged research Instead of adopting a narrow regional focus it tackles substantive issues and presents perspectives from political and cultural systems across the world as well as addressing activism for environmental justice at the global scale Its chapters do not simply review the state of the art but also propose new conceptual frameworks and directions for research policy and practice Providing detailed but accessible overviews of the complex varied dimensions of environmental justice and injustice the Handbook is an essential guide and reference not only for researchers engaged with environmental justice but also for undergraduate and graduate teaching and for policymakers and activists Making Sense of Popular Culture Eduardo de Gregorio-Godeo, Ángel Mateos-Aparicio Martín-Albo, 2017-05-11 The study of popular culture has come of age and is now an area of central concern for the well established domain of cultural studies In a context where research in popular culture has become closely intertwined with current debates within cultural studies this volume provides a selection of recent insights into the study of the popular from cultural studies perspectives Dealing with issues concerning representation cultural production and consumption or identity construction this anthology includes chapters analysing a range of genres from film television fiction drama and print media to painting in various contexts through a number of cultural studies oriented theoretical and methodological orientations The contributions here specifically focus on a wide variety of issues ranging from the ideological

construction of identities in print media to the narratives of the postmodern condition in film and fiction through investigations into youth the dialogue between the canon and the popular in Shakespeare and the so called topographies of the popular in spatial and visual representation In exploring the interface between cultural studies and popular culture through a number of significant case studies this volume will be of interest not only within the fields of cultural studies but also within media and communication studies film studies and gender studies among others Queer Representation in Literature and Popular Culture Dhishna Pannikot, Tanupriya, 2025-08-18

Queer Representation in Literature and Culture offers a timely and critical exploration of how queerness is depicted negotiated and resisted across diverse literary and cultural texts Bringing together interdisciplinary perspectives the volume examines queer identities desires and politics through the lenses of decoloniality and intersectionality With contributions that span literature cinema digital media and popular culture this book foregrounds voices and narratives that challenge heteronormative and patriarchal frameworks Accessible yet scholarly it is an essential resource for those interested in the intersections of gender sexuality culture and power in contemporary discourse De-Centring Cultural Studies Patricia Bastida-Rodríguez, José Igor Prieto-Arranz, 2014-09-18

The academic resistance that cultural studies has encountered remains especially visible in Eastern and Southern European countries One such example is Spain where cultural studies is seen at best as an emergent research field Hence the interest of this volume conceived in Spain by an all Spanish editorial team and written by a diverse range of authors who prove that in spite of all difficulties cultural studies continues to bloom even in Southern and Eastern Europe The different chapters offer interdisciplinary insights into a wide selection of cultural materials whose relevance goes well beyond purely aesthetic issues Altogether the volume 1 provides interesting theoretical reflections on the subtle yet arbitrary borders between popular and canonical culture 2 explores how the popular culture of yesteryear has influenced and inspired later canonical cultural materials and 3 studies how the reception of and representation in popular culture can be accounted for from the crucially relevant perspectives of gender and age This collection of essays studies and explores the connections between a wide range of materials including relevant examples of classic and contemporary literature Arthuriana pop music and videos political and mainstream film newspaper advertising television and the phenomenon of the trans media star

Postcolonial Studies Across the Disciplines Jana Gohrisch, Ellen Grünkemeier, 2013-11-15 Bringing together contributions from various disciplines and academic fields this collection engages in interdisciplinary dialogue on postcolonial issues Covering African anglophone Romance and New World themes linguistic literary and cultural studies and historiography music art history and textile studies the volume raises questions of inter disciplinarity methodology and entangled histories The essays focus on the representation of slavery in the transatlantic world the USA Jamaica Haiti and the wider Caribbean West Africa and the UK Drawing on a range of historical sources material objects and representations they study Jamaican Creole African masks knitted objects patchwork sculpture newspapers films popular music and literature of different genres from the Caribbean West and South Africa India and Britain At the same time they reflect on theoretical problems such as intertextuality intermediality and cultural exchange and explore intersections postcolonial literature and transatlantic history postcolonial and African American studies postcolonial literary and cultural studies The final section keys in with the overall aim of challenging established disciplinary modes of knowledge production exploring schools and universities as locations of postcolonial studies Teachers investigate the possibilities and limits of their respective institutions and probe new ways of engaging with postcolonial concerns With its integrative interdisciplinary focus this collection addresses readers interested in understanding how colonization and globalization have influenced societies and cultures around the world Contributors Anja Bandau Sabine Broeck Sarah Fekadu Matthias Galler Janou Glencross Jana Gohrisch Ellen Gr nkemeier Jessica Hemmings Jan H sgen Johannes Salim Ismaiel Wendt Ursula Kluwick Henning Marquardt Dennis Mischke Timo M ller Mala Pandurang Carl Plasa Elinor Jane Pohl Brigitte Reinwald Steffen Runkel Andrea Sand Cecile Sandten Frank Schulze Engler Melanie Ulz Reinhold Wandel Tim Watson Jana Gohrisch and Ellen Gr nkemeier are based in the English Department of Leibniz University Hannover Germany where they research and lecture in British studies with a focus on postcolonial literatures and cultures

Representations of Japan: At the Intersection of David Mitchell and Haruki Murakami's Worlds Eugenia Prasol, 2023-09-12

This book will focus on analyzing the different aspects of Japan s representation in the novels of Haruki Murakami and David Mitchell It is proven that Murakami creates and recreates Japan without implementing any orientalist features or exotic imagery In the works of both authors the intent to depict a new world of Japan stripped of traditional stereotypical traits becomes clear The difference between Murakami and Mitchell s representation of Japan lies in the difference between Japan as seen by the Japanese and Japan as seen by modern Westerners but both are correct images of Japan It is a recreation of the global image of Japan In that sense the texts of Murakami and Mitchell are complementary representations of Japan through East West cultural dialogue Studying the representations of Japan and Japanese national character helps to understand the role of Murakami and Mitchell in the formation of a new image of Japan the de stereotyping of anachronistic ideas about Japanese national exclusivity enriching by doing so the world literature with new visions of the country and its culture The purpose of the comparative analysis of English and Japanese literary works performed in this work is to reveal both deep analogies and differences in the representation of the image of Japan actualizing the national specificity of the texts This research advances the understanding of how both general and specific components of literary representations of Japan and Japaneseness are manifested in the East West cultural dialogue

Humour and the Performance of Power in South Asia Sasanka Perera, Dev Nath Pathak, 2022-01-25 This book critically examines the role and politics of humour and the performance of power in South Asia. What does humour do and how does it manifest when lived political circumstances experience ruptures or instability? Can humour that emerges in such circumstances be viewed as a specific narrative on the nature of democracy in the region? Drawing upon essays from India, Sri Lanka, and Bangladesh, this volume discusses many crucial historical and contemporary themes including dance drama performances in northern India, caste and stand-up comedy in India, cartoon narratives of citizens' anxieties, civic participation through social media memes in Sri Lanka, media politics and humorous public in Bangladesh, the politics of performance in India, and the influence of humour and satire as political commentaries. The volume explores the impact of humour in South Asian folklore, ritual performances, media, and journalism, and online technologies. This topical and interdisciplinary book will be essential for scholars and researchers of cultural studies, political science, sociology, and social anthropology, media and communication studies, theatre and performance studies, and South Asian studies.
