Rethinking Islamism beyond jihadi violence Elisa Orofino, 2023-05-23 For several years now Islamism has been associated with jihadism and violent extremism both in academia and in contemporary political debates However this association can be misleading Islamism has much deeper roots than jihadi terrorism and it stands as a powerful and complex ideology inspiring thoughts actions and groups all over the world Emerging as a protest for justice ideology claiming freedom against Western colonisation of the Muslim world Islamism has triggered both individuals and groups worldwide since the early 1900s Almost as a sacred ideology based on the need to revive Islam as the only saving grace for Muslims around the world Islamism started to be widely associated with jihadism after 9 11 Before then Islamism was not automatically related to terrorism but to resistance Given that terrorists are only a small and definite portion of Islamists this volume aims to re focus research on Islamism beyond jihadism by collecting relevant contributions on Islamist but non violent organisations More precisely this volume innovatively contributes to current academic debates by exploring the origins of Islamism and the differences between jihadism the evolution of Islamism over time and places and the role played by the most influential non jihadist Islamist organisations active today as powerful non state actors

Architecture and Urban Form in Kuala Lumpur Yat Ming Loo, 2016-04-08 Kuala Lumpur the capital city of Malaysia is a former colony of the British Empire which today prides itself in being a multicultural society par excellence However the Islamisation of the urban landscape which is at the core of Malaysia's decolonisation projects has marginalised the Chinese urban spaces which were once at the heart of Kuala Lumpur Engaging with complex colonial and postcolonial aspects of the city from the British colonial era in the 1880s to the modernisation period in the 1990s this book demonstrates how Kuala Lumpur's urban landscape is overwritten by a racial agenda through the promotion of Malaysian Architecture including the world famous mega projects of the Petronas Twin Towers and the new administrative capital of Putrajaya Drawing on a wide range of Chinese community archives interviews and resources the book illustrates how Kuala Lumpur's Chinese spaces have been subjugated This includes original case studies showing how the Chinese re appropriated the Kuala Lumpur old city centre of Chinatown and Chinese cemeteries as a way of contesting state's hegemonic national identity and ideology This book is arguably the first academic book to examine the relationship of Malaysia's large Chinese minority with the politics of architecture and urbanism in Kuala Lumpur It is also one of the few academic books to situate the Chinese diaspora spaces at the centre of the construction of city and nation By including the spatial contestation of those from the margins and their resistance against the state ideology this book proposes a recuperative urban and architectural history seeking to revalidate the marginalised spaces of minority community and re script them into the narrative of the postcolonial nation state
