Reproducing Rape Domination Through Talk In The Courtroom Language And Legal Discourse Ser:

Reproducing Rape Gregory M. Matoesian, 1993-06 This book offers new insight into one of the most disturbing social problems of modern societies rape Using tape recordings of actual trials Gregory M Matoesian looks at the social construction of rape trials and at how a woman s experience of violation can be transformed in the courtroom into an act of routine consensual sex Matoesian examines the language of the courtroom focusing on how defense lawyers interpret and classify rape in a way that makes the victim s experience appear as a normal sexual encounter He analyzes the language that defense attorneys use in cross examination to argue that courtroom talk can shape the victim s testimony to fit male standards of legitimate sexual practice On this view cross examination is an adversarial war of words through which lawyers manipulate reality and perpetuate the patriarchal domination of women Reproducing Rape will interest students and professionals in law criminology sociology feminist theory linguistics and anthropology

Interpersonal Pragmatics Miriam A. Locher, Sage L. Graham, 2010-10-19 This handbook focuses on the interpersonal aspects of language in use exploring key concepts such as face im politeness identity or gender as well as mitigation respect deference and humour in a variety of settings The volume includes theoretical overviews as well as empirical studies from experts in a range of disciplines within linguistics and communication studies and provides a multifaceted perspective on both theoretical and applied approaches to the role of language in relational work
