The Folded Lie Carlota Lindsay, 2001-12-07 In a small provincial university town everybody is trying to marry off the young divorcee who has just been hired Sexual intrigues underlie the lives of the people portrayed in this allegorical novel incidentally placed on a campus The chairman is up for review there is opposition in the department then open revolt Will he be reelected The new assistant professor in an otherwise all male department is willing to risk everything Will the administration consider her plight and resolve the situation favorably Life on campus and in the town comes alive in the summer when an outdoor theatrical performance loosens inhibitions and people speak and act freely Superbly crafted humorously diverting witty and unusual Letter to the Reader The reader needs to enter a novel barefoot and naked That means leaving aside his persona and being ready to be immersed in the reality the novel provides When a reader comes to a novel with preconceived notions he comes out of it frustrated because his expectations have not been met Let us talk about The Folded Lie At first glance it doesn't look like most novels There is plenty of dialogue and quotation marks are used only rarely How do you know who is talking The dash lets you know someone is speaking but not always who it is or to whom Sometimes it is hard to guess but after a while you will get the hang of it Furthermore the two main characters are unnamed they are referred to only as she and he and you will find no objective description of either one Only now and then someone else reflects their appearances There is no adventure in the ordinary sense one gradually realizes that there is a problem to be solved The story is about people seen mainly from one angle and from that angle their humanity and vulnerability are visible What about the content of that story It takes place in academe but that is incidental since it describes by implication any institution where power is exercised The action occurs in a locale that could be anywhere What happens Basically nothing What counts is how the characters feel about the events that surround them how they understand and react to the forces that affect their lives In what words can one describe this kind of book Take it in your hands feel it open it and read a few pages at random It seems more like a play than a novel It is called on the title page a comedy of bad manners And there is a List of Characters at the end almost the dramatis personae of old plays that lets you know who is who and how who is related to whom Here they are related not to each other but according to the system or organization they belong to In this particular system women with few exceptions dont count for much Many are wives of the men but are relegated to backstage and are only briefly heard or seen If a woman by some fluke belongs to the system she finds herself isolated misunderstood manipulated and ultimately scorned eliminated And at the center of this drama of elimination an actual theatrical production reflects the basic problem posed by the text the characters are playacting using words and body language to manipulate other people while at the same time they watch themselves act In a word it is a comedy of bad faith Presenting characters as if in a play is not without consequences for the reader In many novels the author narrator is a primary source of information concerning the people that inhabit the pages we read Since plays are meant to be experienced in performance rather than in silent reading that information is communicated by other means stage directions the production and mostly the actors who bring the characters to life with a stamp of individuality Here in The Folded Lie reading is a matter of listening to the voice of the characters as it is embodied in the words they use and the rhythm of their utterances It      The Year of Eating

Dangerously Tom Parker Bowles, 2013-08-20 Fugu Dog Cobra Bees Spleen A 600 000 SCU chili pepper All considered foods by millions of people around the world And all objects of great fascination to Tom Parker Bowles a food journalist who grew up eating his mother s considerably safer roast chicken shepherd s pie and mushy peas Intrigued by the food phobias of two friends Parker Bowles became inspired to examine the cultural divides that make some foods verboten or dangerous in the culture he grew up with while being seen as lip smacking delicacies in others So began a year long odyssey through Asia Europe and America in search of the world s most thrilling terrifying and odd foods Parker Bowles is always witty and sometimes downright hilarious in recounting his quest for envelope pushing meals ranging from the potentially lethal to the outright disgusting to the merely gluttonous and he proves in this book that an open mouth and an open mind are the only passports a man needs to truly discover the world      Hitler the Pawn Rudolf Olden, 1936      Through the Fire David Stickler, 2012-01-04 This book was written to Show what it is really like in this modern age of warfare This book is a work of Fiction but based on actual Events some is just pure fiction With a twist what you think is real may be fiction what you think is fiction is a real actual event i have to declare it fiction due to the fact of having to change names from the real ones the names of the places and countries were change in some due to national Security Requirements This book will give you the insite of what War is really like for anyone who has never been in combat For the combat veteran it is a chilling reminder of what it was really like a hit you in the face dose of reality Showing war is not glamorous as TV depicts it but a down and dirty no holds barred fight You will Follow trooper David Grace from right out of jump school as a a wet behind the ears cherry into a no non sense DELTA Force Oprative Following him around the world thru all kinds of situations Some funny some bad some good But all intense When u sit down to read this book ensure you have plenty of time to read Once you get started you will not want to stop and put it down The action will be so real you will feel like you are there in the action
