The Art of Caregiving in Fiction, Film, and Memoir Jeffrey Berman, 2020-10-29 Bringing together the human story of care with its representation in film, fiction and memoir, this book combines an analysis of care narratives to inform and inspire ideas about this major role in life. Alongside analysis of narratives drawn from literature and film, the author sensitively interweaves the story of his wife's illness and care to illuminate perspectives on dealing with human decline. Examining texts from a diverse range of authors such as Leo Tolstoy, Edith Wharton and Alice Munro and filmmakers such as Ingmar Bergman and Michael Haneke, it addresses questions such as why caregiving is a dangerous activity, the ethical problems of writing about caregiving, the challenges of reading about caregiving and why caregiving is so important. It serves as a fire starter on the subject of how we can gain insight into the challenges and opportunities of caregiving through the creative arts.

Signifying Bodies G. Thomas Couser, 2009-10-22 Sheds new light on the memoir boom by asking: Is the genre basically about disability?

Psychoanalytic Memoirs Jeffrey Berman, 2022-11-17 The first book-length study of the psychoanalytic memoir, this book examines key examples of the genre including Sigmund Freud's mistitled An Autobiographical Study, Helene Deutsch's Confrontations with Myself, an Epilogue, Wilfred Bion's War Memoirs 1917-1919, Masud Khan's The Long Wait, Sophie Freud's Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family and Irvin D. Yalom and Marilyn Yalom's A Matter of Death and Life. Offering in each chapter a brief character sketch of the memoirist, the book shows how personal writing fits into their other work, often demonstrating the continuities and discontinuities in an author's life as well as discussing each author's contributions to psychoanalysis, whether positive or negative.

Davis's Patient-Practitioner Interaction Gina Maria Musolino, Carol M. Davis, 2025-03-24 This best-selling textbook, now in its seventh edition, is the essential resource to foster the self-awareness and communication skills needed by health professionals in providing ethical, compassionate and professional care for their patients. The book begins by encouraging readers to understand change and evaluate their patterns of response so that they can adapt to patients in a range of stressful or contentious situations. Through holistic self-awareness, taking into account one's family history and personal values, the book then discusses methods of stress management before moving through the most effective ways to support and communicate with patients. There are chapters on establishing rapport, assertiveness and conflict resolution, cultural sensitivity, leadership, spirituality and patient education. Specific issues around communicating with terminally ill patients or those with disabilities are also covered. Fully updated throughout the seventh edition, now features a new chapter devoted specifically to Justice, Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, plus a new chapter covering professional formation in transitions from classroom to clinical education, including telehealth, patient-practitioner interaction, PPI, interprofessional education and early career pathways. The new edition is informed by the national Healthy People 2030.
