both national and subnational levels Proposing that a period of economic prosperity is the best time to invest in regional development the author indicates the need for a direct role by the federal government The study is based on a review of the U S Canada and Mexico the European Union and supranational organizations such as NAFTA and the WTO and their internal impact on regions The comparison shows that the U S lags dramatically behind the European Union The EU particularly the Western European countries has long been in the forefront of regional policy and is actively formulating policy whereas the U S has no semblance of a federal regional policy Official Journal of the European Communities European Parliament,1996
