Depression Johan Thorsten Sellin, 1972
Violence and Crime in Cross-national Perspective Dane Archer, Rosemary Gartner, 1987-01-01 This prize winning reference work provides data on crime in 110 nations and 44 major cities making it possible for the first time to examine the patterns and causes of violent crime on a cross national basis In this important book Archer and Gartner take a major step toward providing and utilizing international data on crime and violence They have assembled the best cross cultural database on criminal violence that has ever been compiled Michael L Radelet
Contemporary Sociology The authors data and superior analyses make their conclusions more compelling than earlier studies with like or contrary results Furthermore the data set seems rich enough to yield similarly enlightening findings for other researchers Roy L Austin Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science Some highly significant data including whether large cities have higher homicide rates than smaller cities the deterrent effect of the death penalty on homicide rates the etiology of urban violence Choice An amazing analysis of a most wonderful series of data Rarely has social science been blessed by the richness of material over so much time and over so much space as are represented by this volume Marvin E Wolfgang University of Pennsylvania
Mean Streets John Hagan, Bill McCarthy, 1998-08-28 About youth crime and homelessness in Canada
Laura Nader Laura Nader, 2020-12-15 Laura Nader documents decades of letters written received and archived by esteemed author and anthropologist Laura Nader She revisits her correspondence with academic colleagues lawyers politicians military officers and many others all with unique and insightful perspectives on a variety of social and political issues She uses personal and professional correspondence as a way of examining complex issues and dialogues that might not be available by other means By compiling these letters Nader allows us to take an intimate look at how she interacts with people across multiple fields disciplines and outlooks Arranged chronologically by decade this book follows Nader from her early career and efforts to change patriarchal policies at UC Berkeley to her efforts to fight against climate change and minimize environmental degradation The letters act as snapshots giving us glimpses of the lives and issues that dominated culture at the time of their writing Among the many issues that the correspondence in Laura Nader explores are how a man on death row sees things how scientists are concerned about and approach their subject matter and how an anthropologist ponders issues of American survival The result is an intriguing and comprehensive history of energy physics law anthropology feminism and legal anthropology in the United States as well as a reflection of a lifelong career in legal scholarship
