Lesson 1: DEFINITION AND CHARACTERISTICS OF PROGRAM PLAN

All agencies, organizations, councils or local government units are organized and established because they have goals to achieved. These goals are achieved through development of realistic and doable plans and programs which answer the problems and needs of their constituents. These groups/ organizations or agencies are operating based on legal bases as mandated by law or their constitution and by-laws.

It is imperative that initiators, program planners and implementers must have a functional and practical knowledge on program development for them to become effective, efficient and productive catalysts of change.

Plan - A plan reflects what the individual/group/organization would like to do and achieve at a given period of time.

Technically, a plan is a written document covering specific period of time, that contains the organization's agency's vision, mission, goals, program thrusts, projects

Research Techniques for Program Planning, Monitoring, and Evaluation Irwin Epstein, Tony Tripodi, 1977-01 Each section program planning monitoring and evaluation begins with a description of the administrative function to which it is devoted followed by a set of selected research techniques each illustrated with a hypothetical case and an exercise for the reader in applying the technique Journal of Human Services Abstracts, 1978 The Project Share Collection, 1976-1979 Project Share, 1979 Criminal Justice Planning and Management Series, 1981 Criminal Justice Planning and Management Series: Criminal justice planning course (3 pts) United States. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, 1981 Criminal justice planning course United States. Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, 1981 Readings in Rehabilitation Administration T.F. Riggart, J.R. Lorenz, 1985-01-01 Readings in Rehabilitation Administration fills the gap in the training of human service administrators and managers The selections reflect the growing needs trends and new requirements that directly affect the human services at both the national and local levels This text meets the needs of those innovative educators who are responsive to the needs of students the human resource field and the disabled While practitioners are well trained in their field many have little or no education or training for the management roles they assume Readings in Rehabilitation Administration provides for the first time a curriculum content to prepare new administrators The articles included cover a wide range of not only current trends but classic topics which have passed the test of time An extensive bibliography categorizes rehabilitation administration management articles published during the past decade Social Work Education Bibliography, 1983 Criminal Justice Planning and Management Series: Criminal justice analysis course (3 pts) United States. research findings should be a key element of the policy making process yet in reality they are often disregarded This valuable book examines the development of evaluation and its impact on public policy by analysing evaluation frameworks and criteria which are available when evaluating public policies and services It further examines the nature of evidence and its use and non use by decision makers and assesses the work of influential academics in the USA and UK in the context of evaluation and policy making The book emphasises the real world of decision makers in the public sector and recognises how political demands and economic pressures can affect the decisions of those who commission evaluation research while providing recommendations for policymakers on adopting a different approach to evaluation This is essential reading for under graduate and post graduate students of policy analysis and public sector management and those who are involved in the planning and evaluation of public policies and services
