Fostering Social Work Gerontology Competence Catherine J. Tompkins,Anita L. rosen,2013-12-19 Inspire the next generation of gerontological social workers The growing number of people over the age of 65 in the United States has increased the demand for social workers who are trained to work with the elderly a demand that is in danger of not being met. Fostering Social Work Gerontology Competence presents innovative techniques and strategies to help educators infuse aging content into their graduate and undergraduate curriculums in an effort to produce a new generation of social work practitioners who are up to the task of working with an older population. Recent surveys show that there has been a decline in the number of aging specialties and courses offered by schools of social work. Fostering Social Work Gerontology Competence offers a renewed focus on the promotion of gerontological social work education presenting papers that grew out of the first National Gerontological Social Work Conference (NGSWC) held in 2003. This unique book is invaluable to anyone who educates future social workers, leads staff training sessions and/or teaches continuing education courses on aging. Leading gerontologists examine teaching, research, community collaboration and social work competencies while focusing on special populations and issues including end of life care, elder abuse, grief counseling, cultural diversity, cultural competence and the effects of spirituality and social support on the well being of the elderly. Fostering Social Work Gerontology Competence examines curricular and organizational change, developing intergenerational projects involving older persons in the educational process, uniting field practice with theory, strategies to promote student interest, identifying geriatric competencies, intergenerational service learning, developing an aging prepared community, emerging trends in aging and health care, end of life care and death education, environmental issues affecting elder abuse victims, mental health services for older persons in rural communities, kinship care and much more. Fostering Social Work Gerontology Competence is a vital resource for social work educators and practitioners, gerontology educators and practitioners and students.

Rehabilitation and Health Assessment Elias Mpofu, Thomas Oakland, 2009-08-21. Mpofu and Oakland have given us a volume of exceptional clarity, depth and breadth, one whose utility extends well beyond rehabilitation psychology. As such, Rehabilitation and Health Assessment: Applying ICF Guidelines will be an outstanding text for courses in assessment at all levels of professional preparation and will serve as a valued reference source for future research in a wide variety of fields. PsycCRITIQUES Instructor's Guide Available to Qualified Instructors. The World Health Organization's ICF (International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health) has undergone dramatic changes in the past decade, requiring that disability be understood in light of contextual, social and personal factors. This examination of ICF guidelines provides a comprehensive survey of assessment tools, emerging technologies and procedures necessary for personalizing rehabilitation and health care interventions. Editors Mpofu and Oakland have gathered an international team of experts to set forth this masterful volume dedicated to helping students, researchers and practitioners advance their understanding of test use, assessment and measurement using the framework and philosophy presented in the ICF model. With this book, readers will learn how to apply ICF guidelines effectively by expanding their knowledge of professional issues such as ethical quandaries, cultural and diversity considerations and working with children and youth. Cutting edge assessment technologies such as virtual world tools functional magnetic resonance imaging and pre scored health status instruments Assessments of patients adaptation to disability such as measures of pain forgiveness self efficacy and resilience spirituality and more Measures of participation including physical and functional performance community integration sexual functioning and recreational activities The Okinawa Program Bradley J. Willcox,D. Craig Willcox,Makoto Suzuki,2002-03-12 If Americans lived more like the Okinawans 80 percent of the nation s coronary care units one third of the cancer wards and a lot of the nursing homes would be shut down From The Okinawa Program The Okinawa Program authored by a team of internationally renowned experts is based on the landmark scientifically documented twenty five year Okinawa Centenarian Study a Japanese Ministry of health sponsored study This breakthrough book reveals the diet exercise and lifestyle practices that make the Okinawans the healthiest and longest lived population in the world With an easy to follow Four Week Turnaround Plan nearly one hundred fast delicious recipes and a moderate exercise plan The Okinawa Program can dramatically increase your chances for a long healthy life Spirituality and Social Work Dr. Veda C.V,Mrs. Anitha.S,2021-06-10

Encyclopedia of Aging: Qualitative research-Yeast, index ,2002 Religious Influences on Health and Well-Being in the Elderly K. Warner Schaie, PhD,Neal Krause, PhD,Alan Booth, PhD,2004-06-15 What makes the book s approach so captivating is that each chapter is written by a different researcher in the study of religion and health These researchers are responsible for significant portions of the existing literature and methodologies found in this field today The versatility of the book warrants special mention It is effective as a survey of work that has already been done on this topic At the same time it serves as a wellspring of ideas for new research This work makes a valuable contribution to the present understanding of research on religion and health It also serves as a road map to help chart directions for future endeavors in the field Sociology of Religion This volume focuses on the ways in which religious institutions religious practices and religious organizations impact the health and well being of older persons Topics examined include the conceptualization and measurement of religion in late life the relationship between religious coping and possible stress reduction the role of forgiveness as an alternate mediator how social class gender and race can influence the specific effect of religion and religious institutions in a diverse aging society Contributors include L Chatters K Ferraro L K George E Idler S McFadden and K Meador Biblical Perspectives on Aging J. Gordon Harris,2013-04-03 As the population of older Americans grows meaningful perspectives on aging are needed by both the young and the old Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly takes a detailed look at the views of aging presented in the Old and New Testaments This wide ranging and insightful survey encompasses not only the entire Bible but also interpretations of sacred Middle Eastern and Judaic documents This new expanded edition of the original classic text adds thorough discussions of the wisdom of the Bible and Jewish literature with ways to interpret these readings and what they teach about spirituality and growing older Approaches to aging issues have changed in recent years With the average American lifespan increasing the view of old age as a solitary time of waiting has been pushed aside So too has the assumption that the elderly simply want to remember the good old days This updated edition of Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly has expanded its scope to incorporate and address the effects of these changing views This sweeping study of the Bible's positive treatment of aging and elderly figures sheds new light on contemporary society's negative view of the elderly and what can be done about it Clear examples from both Scripture and literature provide a wealth of understanding comfort and wisdom to everyone interested in aging and the Bible In addition this new edition explores the changing relationships that exist among aging hermeneutics mentoring and spirituality The new insights revealed here reinvigorate the challenge against ageism and traditional pictures of old age as a time of withdrawal and living in the past Among the issues explored in Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly are aging experiences and the Bible biblical theology and its role in social support for the elderly hermeneutics and old age spirituality and its relationship to aging cross generational relationships and mentoring and a detailed index of Old and New Testament Scripture references Accessible and concise with compelling arguments and numerous examples Biblical Perspectives on Aging God and the Elderly is an ideal resource for pastors seminary students professionals and leaders of programs for the elderly It shows both young and old that while aging may not be easy Biblical theology can ease some of its mystery

Religion, Health, and Aging Harold G. Koenig, Mona Smiley, Jo Ann Ploch Gonzales, 1988-12-14 This book presents a comprehensive and scientific review of the research during the past fifty years on the relationship between religion and health in later life It will help professionals gain awareness of the importance of religious and spiritual variables among older people The widespread interest in religion among today's elderly suggests its value as a coping strategy and personal resource Unlike any other in the field this volume synthesizes both past research and new findings including recent unpublished data into a model of how religion might interact with other variables to help determine adaptation to stress in later life Religion Health and Aging provides substantial contributions to both the applied and academic aspects of religion and aging With over 500 references this work brings together research findings from a wide variety of disciplines and organizes them in an easily retrievable format The introduction provides a theoretical framework and model of interactions Subsequent chapters address the relationship between religious beliefs and attitudes and both mental and physical health Next investigated are the impacts on health of private religious activity community religious involvement and personal religious experience A model that demonstrates how religion might interact with stress and illness in later life is presented Actual cases exemplify the role of religion in the lives of older people facing life threatening illness Perspectives from the disciplines of social gerontology geriatric medicine and the clergy are analyzed A review is presented of the implications of research findings for professionals working with older persons A detailed bibliography list of publications and organizations to contact for further information provide access to further resources The appendix contains a review of the development and validation of the Springfield Religiosity Schedule an instrument measuring religious activities attitudes and beliefs of the elderly Religion Health and Aging will serve as a centralized resource of significant value to gerontologists physicians in psychiatry and medicine nurses educators therapists clinical psychologists social workers the clergy and others whose professional and personal lives touch older people      Gerontology in Theological Education Barbara P. Payne,1989

Gerontology in Theological Education provides a wealth of useful information to those interested in planning the introduction or improvement of gerontological materials in the curriculum of theological schools The need for including aging in the professional education of the clergy is clear yet it is a relatively unmet need In response to this general lack of gerontological training in theological education this landmark volume documents a model project planned and implemented at the Gerontology Center at Georgia State University and provides suggestions for its use elsewhere Administrators and faculty will find here the results of a national study of gerontology in theological education Detailed descriptions of eight innovative programs nationwide and an extensive bibliography will also provide guidance for administrators and faculty interested in locating materials that relate to their gerontological concerns
