Richard Pousette Dart Paperback:

Richard Pousette-Dart Richard Pousette-Dart, 2005 This groundbreaking volume on Richard Pousette Dart is the most comprehensive publication on his painting to be published since the artist's death. It provides fresh insights into his oeuvre by five outstanding contemporary art historians who have interpreted the artist's creative output from the 1930s to 1992. Richard Pousette Dart, one of the founding members of the New York School, created paintings, drawings, sculptures, and journals for over sixty years. The youngest member of the first generation of American Abstract Expressionists, Pousette Dart shared with his fellow artists interests in psychology, myth making, anthropology, and both African and American tribal art. Along with Pollock, Rothko, de Kooning, Motherwell, and others, Pousette Dart created the art movement known as The New York School. This book presents the evolution of Richard Pousette Dart's styles and philosophy and provides an in-depth look at his ever-evolving painting techniques. The essays focus on his major themes and periods and include his contributions to the complexity of the intellectual and stylistic language of the Abstract Expressionist movement. Richard Pousette-Dart Richard Pousette-Dart, James K. The son of Nathaniel Pousette, a painter, art director, educator, and art writer, and Flora Louise Dart, a poet and musician, Pousette Dart was raised in an environment surrounded by music, poetry, and the visual arts and began drawing and painting by the age of eight. Introduced to African, Oceanic, and Native American art by his father, Pousette Dart made frequent visits to the Museum of Natural History as a young man. In 1938, he forged a close friendship with John Graham, whose writings were closely aligned with his own interests in spiritual concerns and so-called primitive art. Throughout the 1930s, Pousette Dart was most entranced by the work of Henri Gaudier-Brzeska, whose abstract sculptures, drawings, and forms in brass greatly informed the orientation of the young American artist. Published to accompany an exhibition at The Drawing Center, this volume is the first in-depth consideration of Richard Pousette Dart's drawings from the 1930s a period when the artist pursued directly carved sculpture yet also painted experimented with photography and created numerous works on paper These early drawings explore Pousette Dart's concerns about sculpture and working three dimensionally and many reference the figure through full frontal or profile views as they consider space orientation and volume Additionally numerous studies allude to dance animal forms masks and heads and many examples offer an accumulation of abstract and geometric forms particularly for his brasses small sculptures meant to be held in the hand The exhibition includes approximately 80 works from the 1930s including drawings notebooks and brasses Absence/Presence Charles H. New York's most famous unknown artist was notorious for the elaborate games he played with the institutions of the art world soliciting their attention even as he rejected their invitations In A Book about Ray Ellen Levy offers a comprehensive study of the artist who turned the business of career making into a tongue in cheek performance tracing his artistic development from his arrival at Black Mountain College in 1945 to his death in 1995 Levy describes Johnson's practice as one that was constantly shifting whether in tone in its address to potential audiences or among three primary artistic modes collage performance and correspondence art A Book about Ray takes an elliptical path circling around rather than trying to arrest in flight the elusive artist and his purposefully ephemeral art By crafting the book in this way Levy evokes Ray Johnson's art in the moment of its making and draws readers into the artist's world while making them feel from the beginning that they somehow already know their way around that world In exploring Johnson's scene readers will also encounter the artists who influenced him like Joseph Cornell and Marcel Duchamp and his friends and peers like Jasper Johns Allan Kaprow Robert Rauschenberg and Andy Warhol The work of such figures will look forever different in light of Johnson's subversive take on their shared aesthetic Suitable for readers both new to Ray Johnson and those already familiar with his work A Book about Ray is a complete and vital portrait of an American original The Book of Nature Barbara Mahany, 2023-03-21 We live inside a nautilus of prayer if only we open our senses and perceive what is infused all around Throughout millennia and across the monotheistic religions the natural was often revered as a sacred text By the Middle Ages this text was given a name The Book of Nature the first best entry point for encounter with the divine The very act of reading the world of focusing our attention on each twinkling star and unfurling blossom humbles us and draws us into sacred encounter As we grapple to make sense of today's tumultuous world one where nature is at once a damaged and damaging source of disaster as well as a place of refuge and retreat we are called again to examine how generously it awaits our attention and devotion standing ready to be read by all Weaving together the astonishments of science the profound wisdom and literary gems of thinkers poets and observers who have come before us and her own spiritual practice and gentle observation Barbara Mahany reintroduces us to The Book of Nature an experiential framework of the divine God s first revelation came to us through an ongoing creation one that through stillness and attentiveness to the rumblings of the heavens the seasonal eruptions of earth the invisible pull of migration of tide and of celestial shiftings draws us into sacred encounter We needn t look farther for the divine Catalog of Copyright Entries.
