Robben Island Symbol Of Resistance:

Robben Island Barbara Hutton, 2000 The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid Controversies in Tourism Peter M. Burns, 2012 Tourism impacts on locations in many ways socially environmentally culturally and economically This book examines some well established controversies in tourism and some newly emerging controversial aspects associated with tourism as an activity and a business Controversies involving clashes between visitors and host communities the rights and wrongs of eco tourism the impacts of mega events the legitimacy of dark tourism and the costs and benefits of medical and wildlife tourism are assessed This book is an interesting and thought provoking work ideal for tourism students research Emotions Monica Greco, Paul Stenner, 2013-10-31 Are emotions becoming more conspicuous in contemporary life Are the social sciences undergoing an affective turn This Reader gathers influential and contemporary work in the study of emotion and affective life from across the range of the social sciences Drawing on both theoretical and empirical research the collection offers a sense of the diversity of perspectives that have emerged over the last thirty years from a variety of intellectual traditions Its wide span and trans disciplinary character is designed to capture the increasing significance of the study of affect and emotion for the social sciences and to give a sense of how this is played out in the context of specific areas of interest The volume is divided into four main parts universals and particulars of affect embodying affect political economies of affect affect power and justice Each main part comprises three sections dedicated to substantive themes including emotions history and civilization emotions and culture emotions selfhood and identity emotions and the media emotions and politics emotions space and place with a final section dedicated to themes of compassion hate and terror Each of the twelve sections begins with an editorial introduction that contextualizes the readings and highlights points of comparison across the volume Cross national in content the collection provides an introduction to the key debates concepts and modes of approach that have been developed by social scientist for the study of emotion and affective life

Commemorating and Forgetting Martin J. Murray, 2013-04-25 When the past is painful as riddled with violence and injustice as it is in postapartheid South Africa remembrance presents a problem at once practical and ethical how much of the past to preserve and recollect and how much to erase and forget if the new nation is to ever unify and move forward The new South Africa s confrontation of this dilemma is Martin J Murray s subject in Commemorating and Forgetting More broadly this book explores how collective memory works how framing events persons and places worthy of recognition and honor entails a selective appropriation of the past not a mastery of history How is the historical past made to appear in the present In addressing these questions Murray reveals how collective memory is stored and disseminated in architecture statuary monuments and memorials literature and art landscapes of remembrance that selectively recall and even fabricate history in the service of nation building He examines such vehicles of memory in postapartheid South Africa and parses the stories they tell stories by turn sanitized distorted embellished and compressed In this analysis Commemorating and Forgetting marks a critical move toward recognizing how the legacies and impositions of white minority rule far from being truly past remain embedded in intertwined with and imprinted on the new nation s here and now Kronos, 2005

Robben Island Barbara Hutton, 1994 This text tells the story of Robben Island For more than four centuries it has been a place of banishment exile and imprisonment but since the 1960s it has become an international symbol of the brutality of apartheid on one hand and of human dignity on the other Robben Island, 2006* Hope, Power and Governance Valerie A. Braithwaite, 2004

Area Studies in the Global Age Edith Clowes, Shelly Jarrett Bromberg, 2016-02-29 This interdisciplinary volume is a new introduction to area studies in the framework of whole world thinking Emerging in the United States after World War II area studies have proven indispensable to American integration in the world They serve two main purposes to equip future experts with rich cultural historical and political economic knowledge of a world area in its global context and advanced foreign language proficiency and to provide interested readers with well founded analyses of a vast array of the world s communities Area Studies in the Global Age examines the interrelation between three constructions central to any culture community place and identity and builds on research by scholars specializing in diverse world areas including Africa Central East and North Asia Eastern and East Central Europe and Latin America In contrast to sometimes oversimplified globalized thinking the studies featured here argue for the importance of understanding particular human experience and the actual effects of global changes on real people s lives The rituals narratives symbols and archetypes that define a community as well as the spaces to which communities attach meaning are crucial to members self perception and sense of agency Editors Edith W Clowes and Shelly Jarrett Bromberg have put into practice the original mission of US area studies which were intended to employ both social science and humanities research methods This important study presents and applies a variety of methodologies including interviews and surveys the construction of databases the analysis of public rituals and symbols the examination of archival documents as well as contemporary public commentary and the close reading and interpretation of fiction art buildings cities and other creatively produced works in their social contexts Designed for advanced undergraduate and beginning graduate students in allied disciplines Clowes and Bromberg s volume will also appeal to readers interested in internationally focused humanities and social sciences
