Russia Under the New Regime Richard Pipes, 1994 Totalitarianism, Globalization, Colonialism Harry Redner, 2014-05-23 The century that began in 1914 with the outbreak of the First World War was catastrophic Over the course of that one hundred year span civilizations were destroyed in the Old World the New World and the Third World the latter represented by China India and Islam In Europe the main agent of destruction was totalitarianism in America it was globalization ushered in by modernity and in the non Western world it was colonialism followed later by totalitarianism and globalization Harry Redner examines each of these processes providing theoretical and historical accounts of their emergence He considers the effects of Nazism and Bolshevism on the morale and morals of Europe studies the effects on the United States of the nation's emergence as a major world power and describes the impact of modernization on China India and Islam as they underwent Europeanization Sovietization and Americanization Redner confronts us with a paradox in the midst of unprecedented material affluence and organizational efficiency one that uses advanced technologies and cutting
