The Worlds of Russian Village Women Laura J. Olson, Svetlana Adonyeva, 2013-01-10 Russian rural women have been depicted as victims of oppressive patriarchy celebrated as symbols of inherent female strength and extolled as the original source of a great world culture Throughout the years of collectivization industrialization and World War II women played major roles in the evolution of the Russian village But how do they see themselves What do their stories songs and customs reveal about their values desires and motivations Based upon nearly three decades of fieldwork from 1983 to 2010 The Worlds of Russian Rural Women follows three generations of Russian women and shows how they alternately preserve discard and rework the cultural traditions of their forebears to suit changing needs and self conceptions In a major contribution to the study of folklore Laura J Olson and Svetlana Adonyeva document the ways that women s tales of traditional practices associated with marriage childbirth and death reflect both upholding and transgression of social norms Their romance songs satirical ditties and healing and harmful magic reveal the complexity of power relations in the Russian villages

Russian Life, 2010 Gender, Class, and the Professionalization of Russian City Teachers, 1860-1914 Christine Ruane, 2010-11-23 Christine Ruane examines the issues of gender and class in the teaching profession of late imperial Russia at a time when the vocation was becoming increasingly feminized in a zealously patriarchal society Teaching was the first profession open to women in the 1870s and by the end of the century almost half of all Russian teachers were female Yet the notion that mothers had a natural affinity for teaching was paradoxically matched by formal and informal bans against married women in the classroom Ruane reveals not only the patriarchal rationale but also how women teachers viewed their public roles and worked to reverse the marriage ban Ruane s research and insightful analysis broadens our knowledge of an emerging professional class especially newly educated and emancipated women during Russia s transition to a more modern
