Russian Philosophy Three Volume Set:

Russian Philosophy, Volume 1 James M. Edie, 2025-03-14 Russian philosophy begins through the impregnation of the ancient Byzantine tradition of Old Russia by the Western thought of the French Enlightenment and then by German Romanticism The first original Russian philosopher Gregory Skovoroda the Russian Socrates was followed by the early philosophy of history and culture Alexander Radishchev and Peter Chasadayev The fateful break of Russian philosophers into two opposed camps of the Slavophiles was accomplished by the middle of the nineteenth century

A Book About Books, Volume III of III E. H. Bernstein, 2024-11-13 This book is Volume III of a three volume book plus accompanying website www.bookaboutbooks.com which adds to subjects already in the book or presents some books and subjects not contained in the books The other volumes are available from the same booksellers as this volume A Book about Books discusses what nonfiction books and subjects the author believes are important to know about This book tries to point to problems in how we live and to see if books have any answers Even though the books are complete the author will update the website periodically in the future E H Bernstein is a former librarian turned author The subtitle of the book describes the author's objective A handbook in three volumes to a choice of essential books writers and subjects in order to understand the world we live in about big questions and possible answers about books and writers that may improve people's lives about neglected writers and other books and subjects A Book about Books attempts to share what the author has learned from nearly 50 years of nonfiction reading and to provide the reader with samples of the most important authors and subjects from that reading While the book is based on research it is intended to be a handbook or guide by trying to make that research understandable to the general reader and to students and for teachers by pointing to what the author believes is missing from today's education A curriculum proposal for college teachers is on the author's website Note about how the volumes are related each chapter is on a separate subject So the chapters can be read individually but the full message requires reading all the volumes Volume I is important but preliminary to the more important Volumes II and III Note also that the book is not just about books since other sources are also mentioned The author believes we should listen to many voices so the book draws on many types of writers from different times and countries The author says A contemporary writer once said that one of the purposes of writing is that books should be useful I hope that my book will be of use

Dostoevsky's Conception of Man Peter McGuire Wolf, 1997-10

Dostoevsky's novels have contributed to a conception of man that reverberates in the conclusions of prominent twentieth century philosophical anthropologists Max Scheler Martin Heidegger Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty and Albert Camus among others have admitted that the works of Dostoevsky had an influence on the manner in which they learned to conceive of human nature and the world in which humans live Our aim in this dissertation is to ask what is there in the novels of Dostoevsky concerning the nature of man of which certain philosophers could claim that in their philosophical conceptions of man they were positively influenced by him The main thesis is substantiated with a careful analysis of four novels Notes From the House of the Dead Zapiski iz mertvogo doma Notes From the Underground Zapiski iz podpol'ia Crime and Punishment Prestuplenie i nakazanie and The Brothers Karamazov Brat'ia Karamazovy These novels were chosen partly because I have come to the conclusion that these novels more than others concretely show in what sense the leading characters appear to have made themselves be what they had freely chosen to be under the circumstances in which they had to live and that they were fully aware of the responsibility they had to bear for the implications and consequences of what they had thus decided Based upon a close reading four interpretive chapters employ the most significant criticism from

English Russian and French literary scholarship Dostoevsky's philosophical conception of man is compared and contrasted with the conception that Scheler and Heidegger hold i.e. that freedom is man's essence Sartre's atheistic humanism and Camus' thought The following conclusions are consonant with Dostoevsky's work freedom is constitutive for the being or the mode of being essence of man it is an inalienable duty one must become oneself Man strives to overcome himself and to exceed his freedom but in so doing invariably loses it Man exceeds himself only in the sense that he realizes an ideal human possibility The Dostoevskian man reveals not only the absence of human nature but also the enormous power which man possesses for achieving his ideal human possibility

Contemporary Russian Literature Prince D. S. Mirsky, 1926 The Imperial Russian Project Alfred J. Rieber, 2018-01-18 A pioneer in the field of Russian and Soviet studies in the West Alfred J Rieber's five decade career has focused on increasing our understanding of the Russian Empire from Peter the Great to the coming of the First World War The Imperial Russian Project is a collection of Rieber's lifetime of work focusing on three interconnected themes of this time period the role of reform in the process of state building the interaction of state and social movements and alternative visions of economic development This volume contains Rieber's previously published classic essays edited and updated as well as newly written works that together provide a well integrated framework for reflection on this topic Rieber argues that Russia's style of autocratic governance not only reflected the personalities of the rulers but also the challenges of overcoming economic backwardness in a society lacking common citizenship and a cohesive ruling class The Imperial Russian Project reveals how during the nineteenth century the tsar was obliged to operate within a changing and more complex world reducing his options and restricting his freedom of action

The American Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events of the Year ..., 1890 Appletons' Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events, 1890 Theory and History of Folklore Vladimir I[A]kovlevich Propp, 1984 The Power of Language and Rhetoric in Russian Political History Richard S. Wortman, 2017-11-30 This book examines the rhetorical force of certain key words in the discourses of Russian state political thought and literature It shows how terms for cultured conduct kul turnost political affection love liubov joy radost etc personhood lichnost truth pravda and geographical integrity tsel nost assumed almost sacral meaning It considers how these terms took on a life of their own imposing the designs of the Russian state and defining the hopes of educated society in the process By exploring the usage of these words in a wide range of texts Richard Wortman provides glimpses into the ideas and feelings of leading figures and thinkers in Russian history from Peter the Great to Alexander Herzen and Nicholas Berdiaev as well as writers like Mikhail Lermontov Ivan Turgenev and Fedor Dostoevsky giving a sense of the intellectual and emotional universe they inhabited The Power of Language and Rhetoric in Russian Political History provides both students and scholars with a specific focus through which to approach Russian culture and history This book is essential reading for students of Russian government thought literature and political action

Structure and the Whole Patrick Sériot, 2014-04-01 This book identifies the Romantic notion of the whole as the fundamental epistemological source of the notion of structure in the thinking of the Prague Linguistic Circle primarily its Russian representatives and studies what amounted to the slow painful process of disengagement from the organicist metaphor in an intellectual world very different from Saussure's

The Correspondence of H.G. Wells: Volumes 1-4 David C.
