Autobiographical Statements in Twentieth-Century Russian Literature Jane Gary Harris, 2014-07-14 The fifteen essays in this volume explore the extraordinary range and diversity of the autobiographical mode in twentieth century Russian literature from various critical perspectives They will whet the appetite of readers interested in penetrating beyond the canonical texts of Russian literature The introduction focuses on the central issues and key problems of current autobiographical theory and practice in both the West and in the Soviet Union while each essay treats an aspect of autobiographical praxis in the context of an individual author's work and often in dialogue with another of the included writers Examined here are first the experimental writings of the early years of the twentieth century Rozanov Remizov and Bely second the unique autobiographical statements of the mid 1920s through the early 1940s Mandelstam Pasternak Olesha and Zoshchenko and finally the diverse and vital contemporary writings of the 1960s through the 1980s as exemplified not only by creative writers but also by scholars by Soviet citizens as well as by emigrants Trifonov Nadezhda Mandelstam Lydia Ginzburg Nabokov Jakobson Sinyavsky and Limonov Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
