Russian Writers and the Fin de Siècle Katherine Bowers,Ani Kokobobo,2015-06-17 Russian literature has a reputation for gloomy texts especially during the late nineteenth century This volume argues that a fin de siècle mood informed Russian literature long before the chronological end of the nineteenth century in ways that had significant impact on the development of Russian realism Some chapters consider ideas more readily associated with fin de siècle Europe such as degeneration theory bieterminism Freudian psychoanalysis or apocalypticism alongside earlier Russian realist texts by writers such as Turgenev Dostoevsky or Tolstoy Other chapters explore the changes that realism underwent as modernism emerged examining later nineteenth century or early twentieth century texts in the context of the earlier realist tradition or their own cultural moment Overall a team of emerging and established scholars of Russian literature and culture present a wide range of creative and insightful readings that shed new light on later realism in all its manifestations Virginia Woolf and the Russian Point of View R. Rubenstein, 2009-09-14 This book brings together Virginia Woolf's essays and book reviews on Russian literature her unpublished reading notes on Tolstoy Dostoevsky Chekhov and Turgenev and new and insightful scholarly commentary concerning her response to each of the major Russian writers Dostoevsky and the Affirmation of Life Predrag Cicovacki, 2017-07-12 Dostoevsky's philosophy of life is unfolded in this searching analysis of his five greatest works Notes from the Underground Crime and Punishment The Idiot The Possessed and The Brothers Karamazov Predrag Cicovacki deals with a fundamental issue in Dostoevsky's opus neglected by all of his commentators How can we affirm life and preserve a healthy optimism in the face of an increasingly troublesome reality This work displays the vital significance of Dostoevsky's philosophy for understanding the human condition in the twenty first century The main task of this insightful effort is to reconstruct and examine Dostoevsky's aesthetically motivated affirmation of life based on cycles of transgression and restoration If life has no meaning as his central figures claim it is absurd to affirm life and pointless to live Since Dostoevsky's doubts concerning the meaning of life resonate so deeply in our own age of pessimism and relativism the central question of this book whether Dostoevsky can overcome the skepticism of his most brilliant creation is innately relevant This volume includes a thorough literary analysis of Dostoevsky's texts yet even those who have not read all of these novels will find Cicovacki's analysis interesting and enthralling The reader will easily extrapolate Cicovacki's own philosophical interpretation of Dostoevsky's literary heritage
