Encyclopedia of Flight: Stabilizers - Ferdinand von Zeppelin Tracy Irons-Georges, 2002 The Encyclopedia of Flight bridges the gap between theoretical concepts and practical applications between scientific information and historical issues This three volume work provides information about animal and human made flight in a way that is accessible to high school and undergraduate students general readers and aviation enthusiasts It examines a wide range of topics from birds and balloons to jets and spacecraft

The B-45 Tornado John C. Fredriksen, 2009-09-08 The North American B 45 Tornado was America s first jet bomber and was used in a number of vital missions for nearly a decade Drawing from declassified secret documents this history explains the bomber s use in strategic reconnaissance and atomic weapon strike missions from its 1944 development to its role in the Cold War The book includes numerous photographs and more than 100 interviews with pilots navigators and ground personnel

Red Wings Over the Yalu Xiaoming Zhang, 2002 The Korean conflict was a pivotal event in China s modern military history The fighting in Korea constituted an important experience for the newly formed People s Liberation Army Air Force PLAAF not only as a test case for this fledgling service but also in the later development of Chinese air power Xiaoming Zhang fills the gaps in the history of this conflict by basing his research in recently declassified Chinese and Russian archival materials He also relies on interviews with Chinese participants in the air war over Korea Zhang s findings challenge conventional wisdom as he compares kill ratios and performance by all sides involved in the war Zhang also addresses the broader issues of the Korean War such as how air power affected Beijing's decision to intervene He touches on ground operations and truce negotiations during the conflict Chinese leaders placed great emphasis on the supremacy of human will over modern weaponry but they were far from oblivious to the advantages of the latter and to China's technological limitations Developments in China's own air power were critical during this era Zhang offers considerable materials on the training of Chinese aviators and the Soviet role in that training on Soviet and Chinese air operations in Korea and on diplomatic exchanges over Soviet military assistance to China He probes the impact of the war on China's conception of the role of air power arguing that it was not until the Gulf War of the early 1990s that Chinese leaders engaged in a broad reassessment of the strategy they adopted during the Korean War Military historians and scholars interested in aviation and foreign affairs will find this volume of special interest As a unique work that presents the Chinese point of view it stands as both a complement and a corrective to previous accounts of the conflict
