Russian Poetics Proceedings Of The Inter:

Autobiographical Statements in Twentieth-Century Russian Literature Jane Gary Harris, 2014-07-14 The fifteen essays in this volume explore the extraordinary range and diversity of the autobiographical mode in twentieth century Russian literature from various critical perspectives They will whet the appetite of readers interested in penetrating beyond the canonical texts of Russian literature The introduction focuses on the central issues and key problems of current autobiographical theory and practice in both the West and in the Soviet Union while each essay treats an aspect of autobiographical praxis in the context of an individual author's work and often in dialogue with another of the included writers Examined here are first the experimental writings of the early years of the twentieth century Rozanov Remizov and Bely second the unique autobiographical statements of the mid 1920s through the early 1940s Mandelstam Pasternak Olesha and Zoshchenko and finally the diverse and vital contemporary writings of the 1960s through the 1980s as exemplified not only by creative writers but also by scholars by Soviet citizens as well as by emigres Trifonov Nadezhda Mandelstam Lydia Ginzburg Nabokov Jakobson Sinyavsky and Limonov Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Ohala,1994 A study of the relationship between the sound of an utterance and its meaning Pushkin's Lyric Intelligence Andrew Kahn,2012-05-31 Pushkin s lyric intelligence is his capacity to transform philosophical and aesthetic ideas into poetry that questions the creative process This first major study of his lyrics reveals the links between Pushkin s conceptual vocabulary and his intellectual life and between his writing and the influences of French and English authors and movements The Silver Mask Olga Yu Soboleva,2008 A highly significant movement within the Silver Age harlequinade did not surface in Russian high culture until the turn of the twentieth century when it suddenly began to attract the close attention of symbolist authors In the present work an attempt is made to show that the proliferation of the new cultural idiom was indicative of the fundamental concerns of the time and intimately related to the development of artistic thought Although the theme is considered in its cultural totality visual arts literature and drama the work is focused on symbolist poetry It provides a close analysis of the harlequinade verse of Blok and Belyi two leading figures of the movement in whose writings the symbolist theory found its maturity and perfection The poems in question are conceptually centred on the dialectical unity of self and other one of the key notes in the new symbolist outlook This is traced at various levels of poetic representation in the imagery system and the principles of text construction in linguistic features and poetic devices employed by the authors Special attention is given to the sound organization of the poems which heightens considerably the semantic potential of the text
