Tea Shop Walks in Leicestershire & Rutland Paul A. Biggs, Sandra Biggs, 1998 This guide provides details of circular walks ranging from 2 to 8 miles which encompass a variety of tea shops including a windmill a steam railway station a store barn on a working farm and a 17th century hall Leicestershire & Rutland Walks with Children Paul A. Biggs, Sandra Biggs, 2002 The 20 walks in this book have been planned with children in mind and the book details places of interest to see along the way There are general knowledge and observation questions plus information on refreshment stops Death Be Not Proud C F Dunn, 2013-04-19 It would be so easy just to stay there submerged and warm where the world couldn't touch me and I wouldn't have to face tomorrow or the next day or the next So easy To let go Painless Quick Following the vicious attack that nearly killed her and reeling from the discovery that mysterious Matthew Lynes the man with whom she has inadvertently and irresistibly fallen in love is lying historian Emma D Eresby flees the college in Maine for her ancient home town in England With her she carries a precious Seventeenth century journal and the secrets bound within its pages Once home she comes to terms with a shattering revelation and just when she thinks she has the answers faces a future where past and present collide Set in England and in Maine USA and steeped in history and atmosphere Death Be Not Proud the second book of The Secret Of The Journal series continues the romantic mystery begun in Mortal Fire as Emma and Matthew reveal the turbulent truth of his past Dunn vividly evokes a range of characters and the tense and tender relationships between them Fay Sampson award winning author The Hunted Hare Foxhunting in Paradise Michael Clayton, 2012-12-17 In Foxhunting in Paradise a major work of research and practical exploration in and around the hunting field Michael Clayton brings entirely up to date histories of the Quorn Belvoir Cottesmore and Fernie Hunts He describes the glamour the risks and the controversy surrounding hunting in the paradise of Leicestershire's ridge and furrow grasslands divided by fly fences and dotted with fox coverts Royalty captains of industry young bloods from the services and not a few fortune hunters and courtesans have been among those gracing the houses and hunting fields of Leicestershire Yet the sport depends ultimately on the continued goodwill of the vast majority of Leicestershire's farmers and landowners a prize which has always been retained Clayton does not shrink from the essential conservation issues which he believes justify hunting and he deals with the most recent accusations against the sport's conduct in Leicestershire Foxhunting in Paradise throws new light on a peculiarly British phenomenon in an area of understated beauty in the heart of England described by the great hunting correspondent Nimrod thus In the absence of all perfection it is as a hunting country as nearly approaching to it as nature and art can make it and its fame may be said to have reached the remotest corners of the civilised world
