Sabine R Ulibarri:

The Best of Sabine R. Ulibarri Sabine R. Ulibarri, 1993 The twenty stories presented bilingually in this volume many long out of print or available only in Spanish demonstrate Ulibarri's mastery of the short story Regional in setting but universal in their concern with the magic of ordinary experience the stories blend fantasy and realism in their exploration of the human condition All of them were written in Spanish and then translated usually by the author into English Many of Ulibarri's stories portray the land and people of northern New Mexico Together these stories present a living mosaic of Hispanic Indian and Anglo people sharing an awe inspiring yet oftentimes harsh landscape of forests mountains rivers and animals Conversational in tone they preserved wonderful fragments of local history and folk traditions witches ghosts and penitentes strong willed grandmothers Indian chiefs and singing cowboys Other stories come out of the author's overseas experiences particularly in Ecuador Tierra Amarilla Sabine R. Ulibarri, 1993-07 Bilingual collection of short stories in English and Spanish about rural life in northern New Mexico Mi abuela fumaba puros y otros cuentos de Tierra Amarilla Sabine R. readers will come away from this extensively revised and completely up to date second edition with a new understanding of the lives of a people who currently compose the largest minority in the nation Completely revised re edited and redesigned featuring a great many new photographs and maps North to Aztlan is certain to take its rightful place as the best college level survey text of Americans of Mexican descent on the market today The Mexican American Experience Matt S.
