Hayes, David Tombs, 2001-02-01 At the close of one millennium and the beginning of a new one this conference volume reflects on the past and looks forward to a new era in terms of the development of faith Although most of the papers in the volume address issues concerning Christian faith the volume is not confined to such a perspective since the concept of faith is treated here in an encompassing and broad manner The historical perspective reaches back several millennia addresses contemporary issues of economics and justice as they have a bearing on faith and looks to the future as a new millennium presents its own problems and potential opportunities

The Evolution of Indian Stupa Architecture in East Asia Eric Stratton, 2002 Contents I Introduction II Symbolic analysis of religious architecture III Indianization in Southeast Asia lineage one 1 Religious foundations 2 Architecture 3 Java 4 Cambodia 5 Champa IV Burma lineage two 1 Thai Era 2 The lineages of stupa forms V The philosophical Indianization of Northeast Asia the third lineage 1 China 2 Korea 3 Japan 4 Tibet 5 Mongolia 6 The Tibetan stupa Bibliography This work seeks to explore the development of East Asian architecture based upon its borrowings from the Indian stupa While most scholars agree that some features of East Asian religious architecture have been strongly influenced by the symbolic architecture of the stupa this study specifically seeks to identify three distinct architectural lineages originating from India to East Asia These lineages were inspired by the work of Liang Ssu Ch eng who first identified several families of pagoda structures in Mainland China in the early part of the 20 century However here we extend our search to all the nations that have employed the stupa architecture outside India and Nepal These other lineages have been identified through careful analysis in archaeological anthropological historical and religious studies The first of these lineages extends through Indo China and Indonesia The second lineage is mainly found extending through Burma Both lineages one and two meet together in later Thai architecture The third lineage extends across Central Asia to the shores and nations of Far East Asia such as Japan Korea and China As all the lineages are demonstrated to be imbued and propagated by the sacred and ancient symbolism of India each chapter examines the history of Indian thought as it was introduced into a region and then discusses the features of the most well known structures of that region jacket Aisha's Cushion Jamal J.
