Price,2019-09-04 Robert M Price a former Evangelical Christian examines the confusing intersection of Christianity and superstition by asking questions Is practicing the presence of God actually a variety of paranoia Is having a personal relationship with Jesus Christ really akin to a child playing with an imaginary friend At what point does a religious belief become an obsessive neurosis Price finds that the source of superstition in Christianity is the objectification of the transcendent As a result he argues many of the most destructive superstitions within Christianity are inessential accretions to the faith interfering with life transforming piety to the glad benefit of many of Christianity s adherents Christians who believe that an unexamined faith is not worth having will profit from struggling with Jesus Christ Superstition Working with Dreams and PTSD Nightmares Jacquie E. The Holy Spirit as Space for the Living George C. Evans,2023-09-08 In The Holy Spirit as Space for the Living George Evans recognizes the significance of the Spirit in pneumatology within the New Testament emphasizing the Spirit s indwelling presence as a person However Evans notes that the functional aspect of the Spirit as the presence of God is often overlooked The Spirit not only gives life ruah but also creates space for individuals to live and thrive This spatial understanding suggests that the Spirit constructs a unique space for born again believers to inhabit leading to self awareness and a transformed lifeworld Evans adopts a spatial hermeneutic drawing inspiration from Jesus s encounter with Nicodemus to explore different spatial productions and their connection to the experience of being reborn within the space of the Spirit Through this approach he develops a concept of Christian spatiality that expands our theological understanding and highlights space as a construct shaped by the Spirit By considering the role of the Spirit in creating and shaping our lived experience Evans unveils a deeper understanding of the transformative power of the Spirit and its impact on our spiritual journey

To Serve As Jesus Did Marty Haugen,2006-04 The recent call to refocus on word and sacrament in church liturgy is explored in these musings about how parish ministers choir directors and lay leaders can return to basics in their Sunday services without changing the long time programs valued by their congregations The worry that that skillful public speaking and trained musicians may become entertainment for a passive audience is discussed as is the challenge of finding a balanced approach to the relevance problem the result of ministers focusing their sermons on modern social dilemmas at the expense of the more authentic church service of established liturgy and biblical interpretation

When Jesus Was a Green-Eyed Brunette Max Davis, 2016-11-01 When Jesus Was a Green Eyed Brunette weaves heartwarming and miraculous stories of Jesus showing up in ordinary people revealing that He knows us and is fully present in our everyday circumstances especially in our difficulties As best selling author Max Davis puts it When we are born again Jesus lives inside each of us He is very much alive today and still does incredible things sometimes supernatural things through us Davis s own life was dramatically altered when he first came face to face with Jesus living inside a green eyed brunette That encounter started a forty plus year journey where Jesus became his best friend When we see others as God sees us we will love them as God loves us Those hurting and weary from worn out religion are longing for a fresh touch from the living Jesus By letting Jesus live through us we become a conduit of His love Authentic Christianity is not about religion but a relationship with Jesus Davis challenges us to do more than simply receive His grace we need to allow grace to soften change and shape us As you read this book you will laugh cry and come face to face with the living Jesus On Bits And Pieces Mark A. Escobar, 2009-03-03 As discipleship demands new perspectives and priorities these homilies articulate relationships in a variety of settings images and lifestyles of being in the world with others Though they help us understand the presence of God in our lives living with our own mystery and spirituality becomes like a dependable compass that is always there to guide us God sees what is in each human heart and we give ourselves the space and the time to nourish it with the mystery of his love for us It is our road map as we walk by faith and not by sight alone Jesus life teaching and ministry in a particular place time and culture have great significance to our journey as far as our mission is concerned He identifies himself with the people across cultures and he enters into solidarity with those in need St Augustine once said Faith is to believe what we do not see and the reward of this faith is to see what we believe We may not know where our journey takes us because there is not much of a plan but it is our faith that sustains us to complete a journey through thick and thin It provides us with the opportunity to let the mind wander and watch and listen to God in prayer Hence whether it is a daily walk or the journey through daily life these homilies are offered to help us continue with confidence with enthusiasm to move on and in every sense be men and women of the Gospel After all as the late Mother Teresa of Calcutta once wrote We cannot all do great things but can do small things with great love Jesus in Our Midst Chiara Lubich, 2019-10-23 A collection of inspiring writings and talks by Chiara Lubich about the presence of Jesus among us an essential point of the spirituality of unity In a world where social communication networks are multi plying out of all proportion paradoxically there seems to be an ever increasing sense of isolation and loneliness In this context one wonders about the deeper meaning of life

Encounter Jesus in Genesis (4) Samuel J. Kim, 2023-10-22 In Genesis we encounter the same Jesus that Abraham met As a result we ve received the remission of sins and experienced being born again Through our belief in the Gospel of Truth we ve transformed into righteous individuals the holy saints with circumcised hearts and as such we are God s children blessed with eternal life By walking alongside God throughout our lives we too can bask in the rapture s glory mirroring Enoch s experience As God proclaimed The imagination of man s heart is evil from his youth Genesis 8 21 In response we should set aside our own perceptions placing trust in and adhering to God s Word Such genuine faith truly pleases Him Among believers two distinct groups emerge those solely devoted to God and those who balance their worship between God and idols The former group s faith lies in the God of Abraham while the latter places trust in the God of Nahor It s worth noting that Nahor s lineage revered both the teraphim and God In present times numerous Christians find themselves serving both God and wealth Such a faith aligned with the God of Nahor can be termed as a pseudo belief Abraham pursued the Word undeterred by uncertainties of his path It s my genuine wish for each of us to lead lives of faith reminiscent of Abraham which resonate with
