Nordic Italies Elettra Carbone, 2016-01-22 Because of its history art and natural and cultural landscapes Italy has been a popular destination for North European travellers since the age of the Grand Tour Yet literary images of Italy are not all linked to the tradition of the journey to this country and cannot be labelled as a manifestation of Northerners yearning for the Southern sun The corpus of critical literature which deals with Italy in Nordic literatures is very wide but also fragmentary While many scholars have written about this topic and chiefly on the relations between individual Scandinavian literatures or well known authors such as Henrik Ibsen Selma Lagerlöf and Hans Christian Andersen and Italy few have emphasised their variety plurality and complexity With its comparative approach this study casts a new light on a selection of nineteenth and twentieth century representations of Italy and presents some of these Nordic Italies Taking into account texts of different genres poetry drama and novel and focusing on theories of representation genre and space this book examines complex and heterogeneous literary representations that cannot be reduced to a single stereotype In these texts Italy emerges both as a set of physical spaces and as a series of metaphorical concepts How are these Italian spaces and identities constructed and what do they stand for What forms does the broad concept of Italianness take in these literary works How are the Italian settings and characters as well as the aspects of Italian politics history society culture and folklore that populate so many literary texts shaped and combined Is there a relationship between specific literary genres and the way in which Italy is represented These are only some of the questions addressed by this study which demonstrates how Nordic representations of Italy express much more than unanimous praise for the sun idyllic landscapes ruins and mandolin players
