Intellectuals in the Modern Islamic World Stephane A. Dudoignon, Komatsu Hisao, Kosugi Yasushi, 2006-09-27 Incorporating a rich series of case studies covering a range of geographical areas this collection of essays examines the history of modern intellectuals in the Islamic world throughout the twentieth century The contributors reassess the typology and history of various scholars providing significant diachronic analysis of the different forms of communication learning and authority While each chapter presents a separate regional case with an historically and geographically different background the volume discloses commonalities similarities and intellectual echoes through its comparative approach Consisting of two parts the volume focuses first on al Manar the influential journal published between 1898 and 1935 that inspired much imagination and arguments among local intelligentsias all over the Islamic world The second part discusses the formation transmission and transformation of learning and authority from the Middle East to Central and Southeast Asia Constituting a milestone in comparative studies of the modern Islamic world this book highlights the range of and transformation in the role of intellectuals in Islamic societies American Institutions and Their Preservation William Wilson Cook,1929 Inaugural Lectures Delivered by Members of the Faculty of Theology During Its First Session, 1904-5 University of Manchester. Faculty of Theology,1905 Sacred Scriptures of the World Religions Joan Price,2010-02-17 Price examines religions across the world offering an insight into each tradition s views of the world through their scriptural texts and spiritual practices Sino-Theology and the Philosophy of History Liu Xiaofeng,2015-03-20 Since his controversial Delivering and Dallying published in 1988 Liu Xiaofeng has been considered the most influential among contemporary Chinese intellectuals interested in Christianity Now for the first time this collection of Liu s essays translated and commented by Prof Leopold Leeb enables the non Chinese reader to get a comprehensive understanding of the ideas of this inspiring and erudite scholar Liu Xiaofeng s Sino Theology and the Philosophy of History together with the other essays in this collection provide a panoramic view of the situation of Christian studies in the Chinese context today In his introduction Leopold Leeb also presents several other scholars who have been of crucial importance in the dialogue between Chinese culture and Christianity in the last three decades A Philosophical Dictionary; from the French ... With additional notes, both critical and argumentative, by Abner Kneeland. First American stereotype edition Voltaire,1852 Ideas of Social Order in the Ancient World Vilho Harle,1998-03-25 Harle focuses on the perennial issue of social order by providing a comparative analysis of ideas on social order in the classical Chinese political philosophy the Indian epic and political literature Zoroastrianism Judaism the classical Greek and Roman political thought and early Christianity His analysis is based on the religious political and literary texts that represent their respective civilizations as both their major achievements and sources of shared values Harle maintains that two major approaches to establishing and maintaining social order exist in all levels and types of social relations moral principles and political power According to the principle oriented approaches social order will prevail if and when people follow strict moral principles According to the contending power oriented approach orderly relations can only be based on the application of power by the ruler over the ruled The principle oriented approaches introduce a comprehensive civil society of individuals the power oriented approaches give major roles to the city state its government and relationships between them The question of morality can be recognized also within the power oriented approaches which either submit politics to morality or maintain that politics must be taken as nothing else than politics This book is a contribution to peace and international studies as well as political theory and international relations Lectures on the History of the Jewish Church: From the captivity to the Christian era Arthur Penrhyn Stanley,1877
