SACRIFICED LIVES

KRISTEVA ON WOMEN AND VIOLENCE

MARTHA J. REINEKE

"An important and exciting contribution to the field of feminist theory, social theory, and continental philosophy . . . that will interest not only students of Kristeva, but those who are interested in all forms of social violence, feminist theory, and women's issues as well." —Tamzin Lorraine, Swarthmore College

Why did medieval women mystics starve themselves? What caused the European witch hunts, and why were its victims tortured and killed? Why has the Christian West regularly found maternal figures threatening? To answer these questions, Martha Reineke advances a theory of sacrifice, inspired by Julia Kristeva and René Girard, that attempts to account for violence in Western culture, the human proclivity for bodily mutilation and abuse, and women's special vulnerability to violence.

Reineke understands sacrifice as an effort to counter unrest and disorder in society. She gives special attention to two especially perplexing questions: Why must victims die in order for the sacrificial gesture to be effective? What accounts for the ritual probing, mutilation, and slow death of the victim? With Kristeva, Reineke traces the logic of sacrifice to the infant's struggle to separate from the maternal body and acquire its own place in the world. During times of crisis, humans recall those long-forgotten efforts and ritually reinvoke them, often with lethal consequences. Reading the stories of mystics, witches, and mothers in light of this scenario, Reineke explains how the pattern of violence described here has placed women especially at risk — and why religion has played a pivotal role.

A challenging and controversial book, Sacrificed Lives constructs an important bridge between "esoteric," postmodern theory and "ordinary" human life, as it furthers a vital philosophical debate on the question of violence.

MARTHA J. REINEKE is Associate Professor of Religion and Director of the Graduate Program in Women's Studies at the University of Northern Iowa.

The Cruellest of All Mothers Mary Dunn, 2015-10-01 In 1631 Marie Guyart stepped over the threshold of the Ursuline convent in Tours leaving behind her eleven year old son Claude against the wishes of her family and her own misgivings Marie concluded God was dearer to me than all that Leaving him therefore in His hands I bid adieu to him joyfully Claude organized a band of schoolboys to storm the convent begging for his mother s return Eight years later Marie made her way to Quebec where over the course of the next thirty three years she opened the first school for Native American girls translated catechisms into indigenous languages and served some eighteen years as superior of the first Ursuline convent in the New World She would also maintain over this same period an extensive and intimate correspondence with the son she had abandoned to serve God The Cruellest of All Mothers is fundamentally an explanation of Marie de l Incarnation s decision to abandon Claude for religious life Complicating Marie s own explication of the abandonment as a sacrifice carried out in imitation of Christ and in submission to God s will the book situates the event against the background of early modern French family life the marginalization of motherhood in the Christian tradition and seventeenth century French Catholic spirituality Deeply grounded in a set of rich primary sources The Cruellest of All Mothers offers a rich and complex analysis of the abandonment

Women, Ideology and Violence Cheryl Anderson, 2006-01-01 Cheryl Anderson examines the laws relating to women that are found in the Book of the Covenant and the Deuteronomic law She argues that the laws can be divided into those that treat women similarly to men defined as inclusive laws and those that treat women differently exclusive laws She then suggests that the exclusive laws which construct gender as male dominance female subordination do not just describe violence against women but are inherently violent toward women As a non historical critique of ideology critical theory is used to offer analytical insights that have significant implications for understanding gender constructions in both ancient and contemporary settings

The Politics to Come Arthur Bradley, Paul Fletcher, 2011-11-03 The Politics to Come brings together an international collection of thinkers to consider the meaning of liberal democratic modernity at a moment when its future has never been less certain It examines the explosive threats the liberal order confronts today financial meltdown religious extremism environmental catastrophe Yet it also seeks to place these singularly modern crises within a much longer history For the contributors to this collection it is the ancient religious tradition called the messianic that provides the critical lens through which modernity may be interrogated In its ongoing struggles with the messianic liberal modernity confronts the promise and threat of a radically new Politics to Come So what are the Politics to Come How do they manifest themselves throughout history Why does the possibility of a messianic judgement continue to haunt the western political imaginary This collection offers a series of political philosophical and theological perspectives from which the future of liberal modernity if it has one can be imagined The Palgrave Handbook of Mimetic Theory and Religion James Alison, Wolfgang Palaver, 2017-10-19 The Palgrave Handbook of Mimetic Theory and Religion draws on the expertise of leading scholars and thinkers to explore the violent origins of culture the meaning of ritual and the conjunction of theology and anthropology as well as secularization science and terrorism Authors assess the contributions of Ren Girard s mimetic theory to our understanding of sacrifice ancient tragedy and post modernity and apply its insights to religious cinema and the global economy This handbook serves as introduction and guide to a theory of religion and human behavior that has established itself as fertile terrain for scholarly research and intellectual reflection

Theorizing Sexual Violence Renée J. Heberle, Victoria Grace, 2009-09-11 Examining sexual violence the authors of this volume take up questions about the relationship between sex sexuality and violence to better understand the terms on which women s sexual suffering is perpetuated thereby undermining their capacity for personhood and autonomy Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-11-01 Psychoanalytic perspectives on Kristeva s fiction Tragic Novels, René Girard and the American Dream Carly Osborn, 2020-05-14 This book draws on the philosopher Ren Girard to argue that three twentieth century American novels Jeffrey Eugenides s The Virgin Suicides Rick Moody s The Ice Storm and Richard Yates s Revolutionary Road are tragedies Until now Girardian literary analysis has generally focused on representations of human desire in texts and neglected both other emotions and the place of tragedy Carly Osborn addresses these omissions by using Girardian theory to present evidence that novels can indeed be tragedies The book advances the scholarship of tragedy that has run from Aristotle to Nietzsche to Terry Eagleton proposing a new way to read modern novels through ancient traditions In addition this is the first work to examine the place of women as victims or in Girardian terms scapegoats in twentieth century fiction specifically by considering the representation of women s bodies and ambivalence about their identities In deploying a rich and vivid array of tragic tropes The Virgin Suicides The Ice Storm and Revolutionary Road participate in a deep rooted American tragic tradition Tragic Novels the American Dream and Ren Girard will be of interest to those working at the intersection of philosophy and literature as well as Girard specialists Teaching Religion and Violence Brian K. Nationbuilding, Gender and War Crimes in South Asia Bina D'Costa, 2012-07-26 This book gives a detailed political analysis of nationbuilding processes and how these are closely linked to statebuilding and to issues of war crime gender and sexuality and marginalization of minority groups With a focus on the Indian subcontinent the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of a gendered identity and how control of women and their sexuality is central to the nationbuilding project She applies a critical feminist approach to two major conflicts in the Indian subcontinent the Partition of India in 1947 and the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971 and offers suggestions for addressing historical injustices and war crimes in the context of modern Bangladesh Addressing how the social and political elites were able to construct and legitimize a history of the state that ignored these issues the author suggests a critical re examination of the national narrative of the creation of Bangladesh which takes into account the rise of Islamic rights and their alleged involvement in war crimes Looking at the impact that notions of nation state and nationalism have on women from a critical feminist perspective the book will be an important addition to the literature on gender studies international relations and South Asian politics Ana-María Rizzuto and the Psychoanalysis of Religion Martha J. Reineke, David M.

Goodman, 2017-08-24 Ana Mar a Rizzuto s groundbreaking explorations of the formation of God representations in early childhood and their elaboration throughout the life cycle have made their mark enriching the practice of psychoanalysis and psychotherapy as well as scholarship within the psychoanalytic study of religion Accompanied by illuminating commentaries

by Rizzuto the authors of this edited collection essays in this volume underscore Rizzuto's most important contribution to clinical practice rather than assert that psychoanalysis is incompatible with religious beliefs and practices or with spiritual concerns that patients may bring to a therapeutic context Rizzuto makes room for the coexistence of psychoanalysis and religion in the therapeutic setting Demonstrating how Rizzuto's work has enhanced connections within and among psychoanalytic theories of religion established pathways for new developments in psychotherapy and facilitated interdisciplinary conversations this volume showcases the compelling power of Rizzuto's work and its ongoing influence

Abjectly Boundless Professor Dave Holmes, Professor Trudy Rudge, 2012-12-28 Within a variety of practice environments health professionals often experience feelings of disgust and repulsion towards the presence of an abject object Cadaverous sick disabled bodies troubled minds wounds vomit and so forth are all part of health and care work and threaten the clean and proper bodies of those who undertake it yet this unclean side of health work is rarely accounted for in academic literature This volume employs the work of Julia Kristeva through a range of case studies drawn from care and nursing settings around the world It brings together work from researchers and practitioners within the social and health sciences the caring professions and psychotherapy to expose and highlight the important impact of the concept of abjection which historically has been silenced in the health sciences

An Introduction to Biblical Law Morrow, William, 2017 Informed accessible textbook on law collections in the Pentateuch In this book William Morrow surveys four major law collections in Exodus Deuteronomy and shows how they each enabled the people of Israel to create and sustain a community of faith Treating biblical law as dynamic systems of thought facilitating ancient Israel's efforts at self definition Morrow describes four different social contexts that gave rise to biblical law 1 Israel at the holy mountain the Ten Commandments 2 Israel in the village assembly Exodus 20 22 23 19 3 Israel in the courts of the Lord priestly and holiness rules in Exodus Leviticus and Numbers and 4 Israel in the city Deuteronomy Including forthright discussion of such controversial subjects as slavery revenge gender inequality religious intolerance and contradictions between bodies of biblical law Morrow's study will help students and other serious readers make sense out of texts in the Pentateuch that are often seen as obscure

For René Girard Sandor Goodhart, Jorgen Jorgensen, Tom Ryba, James Williams, 2012-01-01 In his explorations of the relations between the sacred and violence Ren Girard has hit upon the origin of culture the way culture began the way it continues to organize itself The way communities of human beings structure themselves in a manner that is different from that of other species on the planet Like Albert Einstein Sigmund Freud mile Durkheim Martin Buber or others who have changed the way we think in the humanities or in the human sciences Girard has put forth a set of ideas that have altered our perceptions of the world in which we function We will never be able to think the same way again about mimetic desire about the scapegoat mechanism and about the role of Jewish and Christian scripture in explaining sacrifice violence and the crises from which our culture has been born The contributions fall into roughly four areas of interpretive work religion and religious study literary study the philosophy of social science and psychological studies The essays presented here are offered as essays in the older French sense of attempts essayer or trials of ideas as indeed Girard has tried out ideas with us With a conscious echo of Montaigne then this homage volume is titled Essays in Friendship and in Truth Off the Menu Rita Nakashima Brock, 2007-01-01 Asian American Christianity is one of the fastest growing forms of American Christianity and it has already proven to be one of the richest and most innovative movements in North American religion With a deep understanding of their roots in classic Christianity as well as the diversity of Asian culture these theological voices have contributed some of the freshest and most provocative work of recent decades This volume brings together women who are searching for authentic Christian dialogue in a world of hybridity and changing context and it represents one of the most significant areas of growth and vitality in contemporary Christianity The subject of love Sal Renshaw, 2013-07-19 The Subject of Love H l ne Cixous and the Feminine Divine is about abundant generous other regarding love In the history of Western ideas of love such a configuration has been inseparable from our ideas about divinity and the sacred often reserved only for God and rarely thought of as a human achievement This book is a substantial engagement with her philosophies of love inviting the reader to reflect on the conditions of subjectivity that just might open us to something like a divine love of the other Renshaw follows this thread in this genealogy of abundant love the thread that connects the subject of love from 5th century B C E Greece and Plato to the 20th century protestant theology of agapic love of Anders Nygren to the late 20th century poetico philosophy of H l ne Cixous This study will be of particular interest to academics and students of the history of gender cultural studies criticism and gender studies When Women Become Priests Kelley A. Raab, 2000 In an analysis that deftly unites feminist criticism psychoanalysis and Catholic theology Kelley Raab explores the symbolic implications of women at the altar providing rich insight into issues of gender symbolism and power Cinema, Suffering and Psychoanalysis Laura Stephenson, 2023-12-14 Cinema Suffering and Psychoanalysis explores psychological disorder as common to the human condition using a unique three angled approach psychoanalysis recognises the inherent suffering encountered by each subject due to developmental phases psychology applies specific categorisation to how this suffering manifests cinema depicts suffering through a combination of video and aural elements Functioning as a culturally reflexive medium the six feature films analysed including Black Swan 2010 and The Machinist 2004 represent some of the most common psychological disorders and lived experiences of the contemporary era This book enters uncharted terrain in cinema scholarship by combining clinical psychology s Diagnostic and Statistical Manual Five DSM V to organise and diagnose each character and psychoanalysis to track the origin mechanism and affect of the psychological disorder within the narrative trajectory of each film Lacan s theories on the infantile mirror phase the Imaginary and the Symbolic i ek s theories on the Real the big Other and the Event and Kristeva s theories on abjection and melancholia work in combination with the DSM s classification of symptoms to interpret six contemporary pieces of cinema By taking into consideration that origin mechanism affect and symptomatology are part of an interconnected group this book explores psychological disorder as part of the human condition something which contributes to and informs personal identity More specifically this research refutes the notion that psychological disorder and psychological health exist as a binary instead recognising that what has traditionally been pathologised may instead be viewed as variations on human identity
