Sad Days Glad Days A Story About Depression:

Sad Days, Glad Days DeWitt Hamilton,1995 Amanda Martha tries to understand her mother s depression which sometimes makes her sleep all day feel sad or cry Blind Devotion Sharlene Prinsen,2012-09-13 One woman s startling firsthand account of her struggle to protect her children while facing the man she married a combat veteran plagued by addiction rage and depression born from PTSD Sharlene peered out the window into the blackness that enveloped her yard She couldn t see them but she knew they were out there police officers and a SWAT team holding their positions in the wood line out her front door their weapons trained with deadly precision pointing at her home Don t let them shoot at my kids she shouted into the phone to the dispatcher as her drunk enraged and armed husband picked up the other line Go on get the hell out of here then When she first met Sean seven years earlier Sharlene never imagined that he d someday be the catalyst to this terrifying scene Sean was handsome in his camouflage fatigues looking proud and just a little cocky Unlike any other man she had ever met he was an easy charming conversationalist and his sincerity was unmistakable The two married and started a family But Sean s drinking soon took over and signs of depression and his raging outbursts amplified Something was seriously wrong He never talked about his tours overseas including his seven month peacekeeping mission in the aftermath of Slobodan Milosevic s ethnic cleansing campaign but there were signs that what he experienced in Bosnia left him reeling at his core As Sean s behavior grew increasingly worse Sharlene s obsessive worry for his well being trumped her basic needs She knew that her husband was suffering from tremendous inner turmoil which she later learned was PTSD and she hoped more than anything to nurse him back to the loving partner and father she knew he could be A powerful story of pain and forgiveness horror and hope Blind Devotion gives voice to the thousands of families who are struggling to heal and to achieve a sense of normalcy stolen by the trauma in their lives A Toss of the Dice Natasha T. Hays,2004-10-15 Natasha T Hays uses stories from her paediatric practice to illustrate the challenges faced by children with different types of special needs including autism bipolar disorder genetic syndromes cerebral palsy attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and giftedness The Utah Mama's Handbook Rachael Herrscher,2006 Breaking the Silence Linda Goldman,2014-06-11 The second edition of this bestselling book is designed for mental health professionals educators and the parent caregiver this book provides specific ideas and techniques to work with children in various areas of complicated grief It presents words and methods to help initiate discussions of these delicate topics as well as tools to help children understand and separate complicated grief into parts These parts in turn can be grieved for and released one at a time A new chapter is included called Communities Grieve Involvement with Children and Trauma It includes information on The Taiwan Earthquake and how the community worked with children a school bus accident in which 36 elementary school children witnessed the death of the bus driver that was driving and how the school system worked with these children and their families a boy who was running on a cross country team and got hit by a car which was witnessed by teammates and how a non profit community grief agency worked with family school and community The last study is from the Oklahoma bombing and the outgrowth of a place for the traumatized children and how they still work with kids and family today This chapter then contains new activities to work with traumatized grieving children The new edition also includes updated resources books curriculums websites hotlines and another new chapter on bullying and victimization issues The chapter for educators has been expanded including the coverage of topics such as at risk students gay and lesbian issues and self injurious behaviors Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials Exceptional Lives Dorothy Leal, Marilyn Shank, 1998-07 The Student Study guide is designed to provide you with a flexible comprehensive review of the material presented in each chapter The format for each chapter review is as follows Chapter Overview Chapter At A Glance Guided Review Application Exercises Answers To Chapter Margin Questions Sample Quiz Answers To Application Exercises And Quiz Resources Raising Our Children to Be Resilient Linda Goldman, 2005-06-29 In this timely and much needed book Linda Goldman addresses the many frightening events that impact our children by providing the reader with a seamless mixture of theory and practice garnered from her extensive experience in the field Raising Our Children to Be Resilient includes trauma resolution techniques and case studies discussions of the respective roles played by parents teachers and the larger community as well as additional resources for those in a position to help children who have been traumatized The goal of Raising Our Children to Be Resilient is exactly what its title promises to help children through their pain and confusion and guide them into a flexible and compassionate adulthood The Therapist's Notebook for Children and Adolescents Catherine Ford Sori, Lorna L.
