Grief as a Spiritual Practice Cathérine Denys, 2021-11-03 What happens when the love of your life dies after a quarter of a century of an ever growing ever expanding ever changing life together Instead of plunging into the big black hole everybody talks about Cathérine Denys experienced something totally unexpected that showed her how to live with the grief Cathérine whose greatest desire has been to live the most conscious life possible shares that principle in an inspiring teaching memoir After revealing how she nearly bypassed the encounter that turned her life around she shares insight into the unfolding of a relationship as she traveled between Antwerp and Amsterdam experienced life in a kundalini yoga ashram and finally moved to Texas When her husband was diagnosed with an aggressive cancer that eventually took his life Cathérine details how she navigated amid her grief and used it as the perfect circumstance to take the next step for personal growth and change while at the same time actualizing a joyful existence Included are exercises and tools to help others handle their own story of loss and mourning In this poignant narrative a woman explores a conscious way of grieving the death of a loved one while sharing wisdom and practical tips to help anyone on the same journey Beauty and Sadness Andr  Alexis, 2010 Award winning novelist and critic Andre Alexis explores worlds with names such as Henry James Maupassant and Kawabata trying like any traveller to faithfully convey what he sees and feels in those places while giving a convincing portrait of himself At the same time Beauty and Sadness is an autobiography Alexis's intent is to give a sense of what it is like to live ecstatically through literature what it is like to read Tolstoy and feel that The Death of Ivan Ilych for instance is connected to the land of his birth Trinidad as intimately as it is to his home Canada In the final piece of the book entitled Water Alexis gives the reader an intimate sense of what it has been like to live as a writer these last twenty years while practicing an art form fiction literature that he contends is in decline In the author s own words Beauty and sadness is where world and words meet My Life as a Colombian Revolutionary María Eugenia Vásquez Perdomo,2005 In My Life as a Colombian Revolutionary Mar a Eugenia V squez Perdomo presents a gripping account of her experiences as a member of M 19 one of the most successful guerrilla movements in Colombia s tumultuous modern history V squez s remarkable story opens with her happy childhood in a middle class provincial household in which she was encouraged to be adventurous and inquisitive As an eighteen year old university student in Bogot Mar a Eugenia embraced radical politics and committed herself to militant action to rid her country of an abusive government Dedicated and daring V squez took part in some of the M 19 s boldest operations in the 1970s and 1980s and became one of its leaders She was able to avoid detection for nearly twenty years in the movement because she was both clever and considered too attractive to be a guerrillera Her vivid narrative brings to life the men and women who were her comrades and conveys their anxiety and exhilaration as they carried out their actions When she tells of her love affairs with some of M 19 s top leaders she cannot separate romance from camaraderie or escape a sense of impending tragedy If V squez gave us only a rare insider s account of youth culture and a guerrilla movement in a Latin American country this would be a book well worth reading But she also gives us an unsparing analysis of what it meant to be a woman in the movement and how much her commitment to radical politics cost her Author note Mar a Eugenia V squez Perdomo is Director Fundaci n Mujer y Futuro NGO Woman and Future Foundation working in coordination with the UN High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR on the project Mujer y Derechos Women and Rights which serves women forcibly displaced by the armed conflict The Spanish language edition of this book published as Escrito para no morir was awarded the Colombian National Prize for Testimonial Literature in 1998 Lorena Terando is Assistant Professor of Translation at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Growing in Holiness through the Psalms David J. McKinley,2023-04-05 In a confused world with moral decay we need clear direction for godly living While the mention of holiness is not commonly heard these days the Psalms call us to cultivate holy lives in today s society The psalmists not only teach us how to grow in holiness but they draw us into their own rich experiences The author explores the Psalms to give us a perspective on the nature of holiness and the many important ways we can grow in holiness The Psalter serves as an invaluable guide for our spiritual formation as followers of Jesus Christ Up from the Straits Myron Fenster,2011-03-09
