long the approach to seemingly universal experiences like love death and even time in film has been dominated by the Global North But what if such explorations developed horizontally instead Drawing from both European and African cultural theorists including Gilles Deleuze and Wole Soyinka Vlad Dima invites us to consider what happens to postcolonial African film if we no longer privilege the idea of time How else might we understand the cinematic image and how would its meanings change Meaninglessness Time Rhythm and the Undead in Postcolonial Cinema is a study of meaning and meaninglessness through the figure of the undead beginning with francophone Africa and extending to postcolonial France Through the analysis of films like Mati Diop s Atlantics and Jean Pierre Bekolo s Miraculous Weapons Dima shows how the African cinematic image may produce meaning without any attachment to European time and how that meaning is connected instead to the philosophy of negritude and to the notion of rhythm Meaninglessness introduces the concept of the rhythm sequence as a new way to understand the African moving image

The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures

Aga Skrodzka, Xiaoning Lu, Katarzyna Marciniak, 2020-04-01 Stereotypes often cast communism as a defunct bankrupt ideology and a relic of the distant past. However, recent political movements like Europe's anti-austerity protests, the Arab Spring, and Occupy Wall Street suggest that communism is still very much relevant and may even hold the key to a new idealized future. In The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures, contributors trace the legacies of communist ideology in visual culture from buildings and monuments, murals and sculpture to recycling campaigns and wall newspapers, all of which work to make communism's ideas and values material. Contributors work to resist the widespread demonization of communism, demystifying its ideals and suggesting that it has visually shaped the modern world in undeniable and complex ways. Together, contributors answer crucial questions like: What can be salvaged and reused from past communist experiments? How has communism impacted the cultures of late capitalism? And how have histories of communism left behind visual traces of potential utopias? An interdisciplinary look at the cultural currency of communism today. The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures demonstrates the value of revisiting the practices of the past to form a better vision of the future.

Diplomatic Para-citations Sam Okoth Opondo, 2022-02-09 Taking seriously the critical conception of diplomacy as the mediation of estrangement, Diplomatic Para-citations turns to the politics and laws that tie modern diplomacy to colonial cultures and the genres of Man that they privilege. In an attempt to read the diplomatic from the African postcolony, the book probes the injunction at the center of the law of genre that states that genres are not to be mixed. This enables it to investigate the citational, recitational forms of knowledge and practices of recognition that reproduce the diplomatic and colonial order of things in the African context. Through a reading of literature, philosophy, and a multiplicity of everyday practices in Africa and its diasporas, Sam Okoth Opondo explores amateur diplomatic practices that provide a counterforce to laws that prescribe faithfulness to a norm form while proscribing the mixing of genres.

Intertextuality in Contemporary African Literature Ode Ogede, 2011-09-16 This book is a study in African literary influence. It focuses on the importance of indigenous sources to new writing. The analytical framework for the study draws on recent conceptual advances in theories of authorship. Juxtaposing works and authors that are traditionally thought to be unlikely bedfellows, the book persuasively identifies their hitherto unexamined points of contact, opening up a vigorous debate about the roots of African literature and offering a radical critique of the assumptions underlying conventional notions of African literature. The book provides valuable insight on the roles of such activities as appropriation, copying, pastiche, parody, simulation, foraging, grafting, padding, recycling, and remodeling in underwriting literary expression in Africa. Alive with wit and full of delight in the texts it discusses, it is a marvel of close and attentive detective reading.

Storytelling in World Cinemas, Volume 1 Lina Khatib, 2012-04-24 Storytelling in World Cinemas Vol 2 Contexts addresses the questions of what and why particular stories are told in films around the world, both in terms of the forms of storytelling used and of the political, religious, historical, and social contexts informing cinematic storytelling. Drawing on films from all five continents, the book approaches storytelling from a cultural historical multidisciplinary perspective focusing on the influence of cultural politics postcolonialism women's social and cultural positions and religious contexts on film stories Publisher website Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé, Enda McCaffrey, 2011-10-01 At the heart of this volume is the assertion that Sartrean existentialism most prominent in the 1940s particularly in France is still relevant as a way of interpreting the world today Film by reflecting philosophical concerns in the actions and choices of characters continues and extends a tradition in which art exemplifies the understanding of existentialist philosophy In a scholarly yet accessible style the contributors exploit the rich interplay between Sartre's philosophy plays and novels and a number of contemporary films including No Country for Old Men Lost in Translation and The Truman Show with film makers including the Dardenne brothers Michael Haneke and Mike Leigh This volume will be of interest to students who are coming to Sartre's work for the first time and to those who would like to read films within an existentialist perspective Realisms in Contemporary Culture Dorothee Birke, Stella Butter, 2013-08-01 Realism is a pervasive term in discussions of contemporary developments in the cultural sphere By drawing on different theories of realism the authors explore how the term may be used as a helpful concept in order to analyse and evaluate current trends in cultural production and in turn how cultural production changes our understanding of what counts as realism The contributions deal with realism in narrative fiction drama and audiovisual media film television news within the context of national traditions examples drawn on in the case studies range from Africa Britain Germany Iceland Russia Turkey to the United States While the authors take their cues from media specific realisms focusing especially on narrative fiction the volume also highlights continuities and intersections between notions of realism in different genres and media With its original essays this collection invigorates the transdisciplinary engagement with forms and socio-political functions of realism in contemporary culture The Tongue-Tied Imagination Tobias Warner, 2019-03-05 Winner 2021 African Literature Association First Book Award Should a writer work in a former colonial language or in a vernacular The language question was one of the great intractable problems that haunted postcolonial literatures in the twentieth century but it has since acquired a reputation as a dead end for narrow nationalism This book returns to the language question from a fresh perspective Instead of asking whether language matters The Tongue Tied Imagination explores how the language question itself came to matter Focusing on the case of Senegal Warner investigates the intersection of French and Wolof Drawing on extensive archival research and an understudied corpus of novels poetry and films in both languages as well as educational projects and popular periodicals the book traces the emergence of a politics of language from colonization through independence to the era of neoliberal development Warner reads the francophone works of well known authors such as Léopold Senghor Ousmane Sembène Mariama B and Boubacar Boris Diop alongside the more overlooked Wolof language works with which they are in dialogue Refusing to see the turn to vernacular languages only as a form of nativism The Tongue Tied Imagination argues that the language question opens up a fundamental struggle over the nature and limits of literature itself Warner reveals how language debates tend to pull in two directions first they weave vernacular traditions into the normative patterns of world literature but second they create space to imagine how literary culture might be configured otherwise Drawing on these insights Warner brilliantly rethinks the terms of world literature and charts a renewed practice of literary comparison

Past Imperfect Pierre-Philippe Fraiture, 2021-04-15 This book proposes to examine French and Francophone intellectual history in the period leading to the decolonization of sub Saharan Africa 1945 1960 The analysis favours the epistemological links between ethnology museology sociology and art history In this discussion a specific focus is placed on temporality and the role ascribed by these different disciplines to African pasts presents and futures It is argued here that the post war context characterized inter alia by the creation of UNESCO the birth of Pr sence Africaine and the prevalence of existentialism bore witness to the development of new regimes of historicity and to the partial refutation of a progress based modernity This investigation is predicated on case studies from West and Central Africa AOF AEF and Belgian Congo and whilst adopting a postcolonial methodology it explores African and French authors such as Georges Balandier Cheikh Anta Diop Frantz Fanon Chris Marker Joseph Ki Zerbo Claude L vi Strauss Alain Resnais Jean Paul Sartre and Placide Tempels This study explores the intellectual legacy of the long nineteenth century and the difficulty encountered by these authors to articulate their anti colonial agenda away from the modern methodologies of the colonial library By focussing on issues of intellectual alienation this book also demonstrates that the post WW2 period foreshadowed twenty first century debates on extroversion racial inequalities the decolonization of history and cultural mis appropriation

Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms
